COURT OF DIRECTORS

For Affairs of the East-India Company,

THIS attempt to facilitate the knowledge of the laws, customs and religious opinions, of a large portion of the inhabitants of that Empire which is placed under their controul, is most respectfully dedicated,

By their most obedient humble Servant,

THE TRANSLATOR.

PREFACE.

It may naturally be expected, that the translator of the following work should assign the motives which induced him to undertake a task so little connected with his professional pursuits, and to offer the fruit of his labours to the public. To such inquiries he has only to reply, that having devoted to the study of the Arabic language a considerable share of the leisure which he could spare from the duties of his profession, this work was begun and completed, as an ambsement and an exercise, with a view to further improvement in that nervous and copious tongue, without the smallest intention of submitting it to public view. But the opinion which some friends, who had perused the work, expressed, concerning the curiosity and utility of the matters it contains, gradually overcame his reluctance to appear before the tribunal of the learned, and determined him to make application to Government and the public, for a subscription, to defray the expense of the publication

The knowledge of the opinions entertained by various nations, regarding the Deity, his nature and attributes, the manner in which he has revealed his will to mankind, the modes of worship acceptable to him, and the duty incumbent on man, towards Gop, his fellow creatures and himself, forms a most interesting part of the history of the human mind But, as far as regards the followers of MUHAMMED, who form a considerable portion of the people whom the course of events has rendered subject to the British Government in India, these are not objects of pure curiosity and speculation For the wisdom of our legislature having decreed, that the administration of civil justice to those people shall be, in a great measure, regulated by their own laws, and made those laws the standard of criminal jurisprudence for all the native inhibitants of our Indian empire, it is of essential importance that those laws be well and tho-Now, although a knowledge of their practical application roughly understood may be obtained from treatises which have been composed expressly with that view, yet he who desires thoroughly to comprehend their spirit, must trace them

And the two sources, from which the whole body of to the fountain head Muh ammedan law is derived, are, on one hand, the Koran, and, on the other, the sayings and actions of Muhammed, handed down at first by oral tradition, but afterwards collected in writing, by several learned and industrious compilers Regarding the first of these, the translations by the learned Maracci, and our countryman Sale, leave nothing to be desired But hitherto, as far as the translator has been able to learn, no complete body of Muhammedan traditions has appeared, in any European language, although numerous extracts from them are given by Dr Pococke, Maracci and Sale The collections of this kind, extant in the Arabic language, are very numerous, the most considerable and authentic of which the reader will find enumerated in the original preface of the author of the Misheat * The reason which determined the translator's selection of this work, in preference to others, was its containing the most important and authentic traditions, compiled from all the preceding collections, as related in the passage above referred to

But the utility of this knowledge is not confined to those gentlemen to whose hands the administration of justice is entrusted. In the ordinary intercourse of life, he that is desirous of gaining the esteem, the regard, or the affection of those with whom he converses, or indeed who regards his own safety, will be careful, not to offend against their religious prejudices, or their notions of right and wrong with which prejudices and notions, he can become acquainted, only by consulting their own records

Above all, it behaves those ministers of our holy religion, whose zeal may lead them to labour in the propagation of its sacied truths, and in refuting the errors of unbelievers, or schismatics, of whatever description, to be well acquainted with the tenets of those sects, whose dogmas they undertake to impugin And with regard to the Muh ammedans in particular, the learned Reland has shewn, that Christian writers, of no small eminence in point of learning and reputation, have egregiously misrepresented the doctrines of their faith, and bestowed much useless labour, in confuting opinions, which the followers of the Arabian prophet never maintained, thus exposing themselves to the charge of ignorance, and the contempt of their adversaries, and injuring the cause which

hey had undertaken to defend, by making it appear to stand in need of false allegations for its support

With regard to the present translation, the author, whose life has been spent in the exercise of an active profession, lays no claim to the art of elegant But farther, he conceives, that if within his reach, it would have been misplaced in a work of this nature, the principal merit of which is fidelity That merit he trusts a comparison with the original will prove this translation to possess, but it must in a great degree have been sacrificed, by any attempt to render the Arabic expressions into an elegant English style In one particular, it may be thought, that the translator has carried a scrupulous adherence to the words of the original too far, and on that head he deems it incumbent on himself to offer some apology and explanation The language, in some parts, especially in the book which treats of religious purification, may be thought offensive to the delicacy of the public eye To avoid this, only two expedients offered themselves to the translator's election, and both were liable to objections, which determined hm, on mature consideration, to reject them He must either have used terms of cucuitous and somewhat ambiguous allusion, which would have rendered the translation an unfaithful picture of its original, or veiled whole clauses, and even sentences, in the mysterious garb of a learned language which would have given a motley and grotesque appearance to the whole He considered the work of his author as a book of science, deemed, by that author, and the people for whom he wrote, to convey instruction of the most important nature, and in such a book, the object being to convey truth in the most intelligible phrase, so that he that runs may read and understand, it cannot be indecent or improper to give to any work of the creator its direct and appropriate name. In this view of the matter, he was confirmed, by the example of the English translators of the Bible, and by the practice of our Courts of Law, which, in matters of weighty concern, where any ambiguity of expression might be of fatal consequence, will not allow a regard to delicacy to excuse a witness from hearing questions, and giving replies, in the most direct and unequivocal terms

For the orthogaphy of proper names, and other Asiatick words, the translator is acquainted with only two systems, which can be deemed at all complete or consistent, those proposed by Sir William Jones and by Dr Gilchrist, and of these he has preferred the former, as being better known in Europe, more pleasing to the eye, and not requiring types made on purpose, which are indispensable in Dr GILCHRIST'S last improved notation Though a full delineation of Sir William Jones s method is to be found in the Assauck Researches, the translator thinks a short scheme of it will not be unacceptable to such of his readers, as may not have access to that work, or lessure to study it

THE AUTHOR'S PREFACE.

In the name of God the Compassionate and the Merciful:

( ALL praise to God! We praise him and ask him for assistance, and implore him for grace, and to defend us from the wickedness of our natures, and from the guilt of our actions He whom God guideth no one can lead astray, and he whom God causeth to err can find no one to direct his steps I bear witness that verily there is no God but God, which testimony will be the means of my redemption, and a security of my exaltation, and I bear witness that veilly Muh'ammed is the servant and messenger of God, he whom God sent when the impressions of the paths of faith were nearly effaced, and the lights of belief hidden, the pillars thereof weak, and its dwelling places unknown He strengthened the tottering remains, and by teaching the unity of God, cured the diseased, and those who were on the brink of destruction. He made clear the road of direction for those who desired to travel therein, and pointed out the treasures of virtue to those who desired to possess them praise to God and grace to his Apostle, verily the walking in the paths

&quot;The work entitled Mas'abih-ul-sunnat, (or the lamp of religious observances) was compiled by Imam Husain, the son of Masû un Itraa of Baghdad, who died in the year 516 of the Hijra—It is said that the author did not avowedly entitle his book Mas'abih, but in the preface, after the praises of God and the prophet, he says, "now the traditions in this book are lamps (Masabih')," and for this reison the book is commonly known by this name—The number of traditions contained in it is 4484, of which 2404 are Sahih (inthentick) and 2050 are Hasan (delivered on respectable authority). As all these are handed down from the primitive fathers of the faith, he omitted to issign the particular authorities. By Sahih' is meant those which are extracted from the two Shaikhs (viz Abu' Abdullah Muhammed of Bokhara and Abu'i Ilusain Muslim) and by Hasan those extracted from Abu' Da'ud, from Tirmid hi and other compilers of traditions. He has also indicated the traditions denominated Zaif (of slender authority) and Ghaib (resting on the evidence of a single narrator) but has declined the mention of those termed Munkir (related by an author of slender credit, in opposition to one whose testimony, though of no great weight, is better than his own) and Mauzuu (of which the narrator is suspected of falsehood)

This book he entitled Mishcat ul Mas'abih', (the niche for holding the lamps) His brother Husain wrote, with his concurrence, a commentary of the Mishcat, intilled Tibi Afterwards, in the time of the Emperor Akber, Shaikh Abd-ul-liak of I his, undertook, at the same time, a translation of the Mishcat into Persian, and a commentary on the same in Arabic."

† The commentators say that the Prophet in this passage, after mentioning worldly considerations in general, particularly specifies marriage, which is included among them, for this reason, that the passion which leads towards it is the most powerful of all, and more than any other diverts the mind from the exercise of religion. The occasion of this tradition is said to have been Muh'ammed's being informed of a person who had left his home and come to Medinah in quest of a temale singer named On-Kais. I was not born, neither will any one be born of me, nor is there any one like unto me." Ab'u Huraira said that the Prophet of God related these words of God, "The sons of Adam vex me, and abuse time, whereas I am time itself, in my hands are all events, I have made the day and night." ABDULLAH-IBN-OMER 'The Prophet of God said, "God wrote the orders for creation, before creating the heavens and earth, fifty thousand years and his bed was upon the waters' IBN-OMFR 'The Prophet said, "whatever is in the universe is by the order of God, even to understanding and stupidity ' ABU'HURAIRAH 'The Proplict of God said, that ADAM and Moses (in the world of spirits) maintained a debate before God, and Adam got the better of Moses, who said, "thou art that ADAM whom God created by the power of his hand, and breathed into thee from his own spirit, and made the Angels bow before thee, and gave thee an habitation in his own paradise after that thou threwest man upon the earth, from the fault which thou committedst " ADAM said, " thou art that Most's whom God elected for his prophecy, and to converse with, and he gave to thee twelve tables, in which are explained every thing, and God made thee his confident, and the bearer of his secrets then how long v as the Bible written before I was created?" Moses said "forty years" Then ADAM said, "didst thou see in the Bible, that ADAM disobeyed God?"

He said "yes" ADAM said, "dost thou reproach me on a matter which God wrote in the Bible torty years before creating me?"

CHAP IV Part I

IBN-MASU'UD said 'The Prophet of God related this traffition to me, "verily the root of creation of every one is semen, which is collected in his mother's womb forty days in embryo; after that it is like a clot of blood, and in forty days after it assumes the appearance of a piece of flesh, and then God sends an Angel to it to write four things in its fortune, when its actions, its life, and its portion are specified, and whether fortunate or unfortunate after that he breathes a spirit into it. Therefore I swear by God that some of you will be appropriated to paradise, and some of you to hell "Sahal-ibn Sad" The Prophet of God said, "verily there is no reliance on actions but at the latter end"

Adultery of the eye Of the tongue AB'UHURAIRAH The Prophet said, "Verily God hath written it in the destmy of those who will commit adultery, and they certainly and by necessity must do so- then the adultery of the eye is to look with an eye of desire on the wife of another and the adultery of the tongue is to utter what is forbidden. The heart of man may desire, and sometimes the parts of man and woman fall into adultery and sometimes reject it." Ab'uhurairah. "I said to the Prophet of God, "truly I am a youth, and fear my desires may lead me to commit adultery, and I have not the means of marriage," (By which words it is supposed that Ab'uhurairah requested permission to become an eunuch) "The Prophet remained silent. Then God touched the back of Adam, and brought forth another family, and said I have created this for hell, and their actions will be like unto those of the people of hell." Then a man said to the Prophet, "Of what use will deeds of any kind be?" He said, "when God createth his servant for paradise, his actions will be deserving of it until he die, when he will enter therein, and when God createth one for the fire, his actions will be like those of the people of hell till he die, when he will enter therein."

ABDULLAH-IBN-OMER The Prophet came out of his house with two books in his hands, and said, "do you know what books these are?" We said "no, but do thou tell us" Then he said of the book which was in his right hand, "this is from God, in it are the names of the people of paradise, of their fathers and tribes, and their numbers were cast up at the bottom of the book, and of them there cannot be more or less " and he said of the book that was in his left hand, "this is from God, in it are the names of the people of hell, their fathers and tribes cast up at the bottom, and neither will there be more or less" Then his companions said "O Prophet! of what use are actions to works that are already finished?" He said, "do your duty towards God in the straight road, and seek to approach him, because the people of paradise end their lives with deeds becoming paradise, whatever their actions may have been during their lives and the people for hell will seal their lives as inhabitants of hell, whatever their actions may have been during their lives" Then the Prophet threw AB'UHURAIRAH The Prophet of God came out of his house when we were debating about fate, and he was angry, and became red in the face, to such a degree that you would say the seeds of a pomegranate had been bruised on it. And he said, "hath God ordered you to debate of fate, or was I sent to you for this? Your forefathers were destroyed for debating about fate and destiny, I adjure you not to argue on those points"

It is implous to debute on the decrees of God

AB'U-MU'SA-AL-ASHAR'I said, I heard the Prophet of God say, "verily God created Adam from a handful of earth, taken from all parts, and the children of Adam became different, like the earth, some of them red, some white and some black, some between red white and black, some gentle and some severe, some impure and some pure"

On this account the author of the Masab h has introduced the tradition into this chapter. 2 Those who maintain that the children of infidels may be saved, understand by the word. #### ON HOLDING FAST THE KOR'AN AND THE LAWS OF MUH'AMMED

A'AYESHAH The Prophet said "whosoever fabricateth any thing new in my religion, that person and that thing will be rejected JA'BIR The Prophet of God said, "verily the best word is the word of God, and the best rule of conduct is that delivered by Muh'ammed, and the worst of all acts are those which are innovations, every thing newly introduced being so, and every innovation is abandoning the right load' IBN ÂBB'AS The Prophet said, "the greatest enemies of God are three persons, the first is he who shall abandon the respect for the Câbah, the second that person who is entered into Islam and does acts of infidelity, the third who shall, without cause, shed the blood of man"

Disobedience is equivalent to infidelity AB'UHURAIRAH The Prophet said, "the whole of my sect will enter into paradise excepting he who shall deny me" He was asked "who would deny him?" He said "he who obeys me will go to heaven, and he who has disobeyed me has denied me"

MISHCAT UL-MAS'A'B'IH'

JA'BIR said, that a saity of ange's came towards the Prophet, when he was sleeping, and 'hey said to early her, "verily there is a parable for your friend, then let us explain it." Some of them observed, "he certainly is asleep" others said "his eyes are sleeping but his heart is wakeful," and they said "the parable is that of a man who hath built a house and dressed victuals therein, and sent invitations, therefore those who accept them have entered the house and eaten thereof, and those who have not accepted the invitations have not entered the house and have not eaten of the food". Then the angels said, "explain clearly, that he may understand" some said "he verily is asleep," and others said "his eyes are asleep, but his heart waketh" Then the angels said "the house is paradise, and the invitor Muhammed, and the builder God therefore, those who obey Muhammed, verily obey God, and those who disobey Muhammed verily disobey God, and Muhammed is the seperator between the true and the false"

Parable of a man who has sent invitations to a feast

Anas said, three persons came to the wives of the Prophet and asked about his acts of worship and when the wives explained his adorations they thought them trifling and the three persons said, "what relation is there between our worshipping and his? For certainly God has forgiven him his former sins, as well as all that he may fall into in future." Then one of them said, "I will ever pray during the night," another said. "I will always fast during the day, the third said. "I will never have any thing to do with woman." Then the Prophet of God came to them and said, "are you the Prophet that say so? I swear by God that I fear him more than you do, and am more abstinent than you, but I fast and eat also; say my prayers and sleep, and marry likewise, then those who turn from my ways are not of me."

They said "it is an ancient custom" The Prophet replied "perhaps it would be better were you not to do so," and they left it off, and the tree produced but little fruit. It is unlawful to dispute about the me ining of the Koran

AB'UHURAIRAH The Prophet and "men will be liars towards the end of the world, and will relate such storics as neither you nor your fathers ever heard. Then avoid them, that they may not lead you astray and throw you into contention and strife."

ABUHURAIRAH said, there were people of the book who read the Bible in History, and translated it into Arabic for the people of Islam, and the Prophet said "do not consider them hars or tellers of truth, but say to them we believe in God and that which is sent to us, and what was sent to Moses and Jesus" Abuhurairah The Prophet said, "the sign of a har is that he relateth every thing that he heareth" Ibn Masu'ud The Prophet, suid, there was not any Prophet sent before me by God to his seet but found friends and companions, who embraced his maxims and became his disciples, after which were born those who gave out precepts which they did not practise, and did what they were not ordered to do therefore those who oppose them with the hand, the tongue and the heart, are Momins. EKDAM-BIN-MADIKERIB* The Prophet said "Know for certain that the Koran was given to me, and with it, that which is like unto it | It is near that the affluent will arrogantly say, hold fast the Koran and know what you find there as lawful, to be lawful, and what is there stated as unlawful, to be unlawful. Prophet of God! we may say you are taking your leave of us, then advise us" He said "I admonish you to fear Gop, and yield obedience to my successor, although he may be a black slave, for this reason that those amongst you who may live after me, will soon see great schisms. Therefore hold fast my ways, and those of my successors, who may be directors of the straight road, having found it themselves, and ardently seize my laws and be firm thereto, and fear any thing newly introduced, because every thing new is heresy, and every heresy leads astray

ABDULLAH-BIN-MASU'UD said, the Prophet drew a straight line for us, and said "this is the path of God," after which he drew several other lines on the right and left side of it, and said "these are roads, upon every one of which is a devil who calls mankind towards his own way, verily this road of mine is straight, then follow it ABDUILAH-IBN-OMER The Prophet said, "not one of you is a Momin till his wishes are bent on following what I have brought" BILL'AL-BIN-HA'RITH* The Prophet of God said, "he who shall revive any one of my laws which shall have died away after my time, for him there is a reward equal to that of him who shall practice it, and he who shall give rise to a heresy displeasing to the original said.

The rich who are charitable & the learned in religion who instruct others, are of all men the most to be envied.

AB'UHURAIRAH The Prophet said, "that person who shall relieve a Mómin from distress in this world, God will in like manner relieve him on the day of the resurrection, and he who shall do good to the indigent, God will do good to him in the world and in futurity, and that person who shall conceal the fault of a Musleman, God will conceal his faults in the world and in futurity God assisteth his servant as long as his servant assisteth his brother Musleman, and that person who shall pursue a road that leadeth to knowledge, God will make easy for him the road to paradise People are not assembled together in mosques to read the book of God, without light and comfort descending upon them the favour of God covereth them, and angels encompass round about, and God reckoneth them among the angels. The great efficacy of Wa'du when duly performed.

AB'UHURAHRAH The Prophet said "when a Musleman uses Wa'dù, it washes from his face those faults which he may have cast his eyes upon, and when he washes his hands, it removes the faults they may have committed, and when he washes his feet, it dispels the faults towards which they may have carried him, so that he will rise up in purity from the place of ablution "Othman The Prophet said "there is no Musleman who when the time of divine prayers comes, performs his Wadù properly, and fears in his heart and looks on the place of adoration, but they will hide and raze the faults which he may have committed before, as long as they are not of a heinous nature"

OTHM'AN. I performed the Wa'dù in this manner I washed my hands three times, and then my mouth three times, and then threw water into my nose three times, after that I washed my face three times, then I washed my right arm three times, from the tips of my fingers to my elbow bone, and then my left arm the same number of times then I drew my right hand wet over my head, after that I washed my right foot three times, then my left in the same manner I saw the Prophet of God perform the Wa'dù like mine as above. OMER-IBN-AL-KHATT'AB The Prophet said " if any one of you shall complete the Wà'dù, after that shall bear witness that there is no other God, and Muh'ammed is his servant and messenger, the eight doors of paradise will be open to him." Ab'uhurairah The Prophet said. " verily my sect will be called towards paradise on the day of resurrection with bright faces, hands and feet; then he amongst you who has it in his power to increase the brightness of his face, let him do so." Ab'uhurairah The Prophet said " jewels will reach that Mômin at the place where the waters of his Wà'dù are known."

CHAPTER II.

Mankind cannot of themselves practice virtue, but ought to seek assistance by prayer and ablution

HAUB'AN * The Prophet of God said, "go the straight road and incline not to the right or left. But you have not the power to go straight, and know that your best actions are prayers; and Mómins always attend to their Wa'dù" IBN ÔMER. These are the people who cast doubt into my mind"

ABDULLAH The Prophet said, "when Muslemans perform Wa'dù and wash their mouths, their faults will go therefrom, and when they throw water into their noses the faults that may be there will go away, and when they wash their faces the faults there will remove, even to the faults that may be under their two eyelids, and when a Musleman washes his hands, his faults there will be removed, even to those under the nails of his fingers, and when he touches his head, the faults from it will move away, even to the faults of his ears, and when he washes his feet, the faults there will be removed, even to the nails of his toes, after that he will go to the Masjid and read prayers, for which will be more rewards."

Ablution effectually removes the traces of sin from every part of the body

It is related of Othm'An that he was performing  $Wad \hat{u}$  on the makaid,\* and he said, "I will shew you the manner of the Prophet's Wad u" Then he washed each member thrice. Hence we must understand that  $Wad \hat{u}$  was sometimes performed once, sometimes twice and sometimes thrice. Abdullah Ibn Omer said, 'I returned with the Prophet from Mecca to Medinah, when we arrived at some water which was in the Mecca road, a party hastened to perform  $Wad \hat{u}$  for the afternoon prayers and they  $d \cdot d$  so, in a hurry; and we came up to them, and found that they had not wetted the under part of their feet. Variations in the precept at different times BAI BIN CAB Bathing is for that person who perceives semen. This was the order at the commencement of Islam, but now it is obsolete, for whether the man or woman emits or not, they must both bathe. All IBN ABU Talib said, 'a man came to the Prophet and said, "verily I have bathed from uncleanness and have said my morning prayers, after which I saw upon my body a part equal to the breadth of my nail, where the water had not reached" The Prophet said to him, "if you had rubbed your hand wet, over that part, it would have been sufficient"

The Prophet by intercession with Cropobtains a remission of religious austerities for his people.

IBN OMER said, 'God told the Prophet on the night of his journey to heaven, to order his sects fifty prayers daily, and seven bathings for man or woman, after connexion with each other, and to wash clothes on which urine had fallen seven times and the Prophet supplicated always to have it lessened, till the prayers were reduced to five, and the bathing for uncleanness to once, and the washing of the clothes stained with urine to once.

ANAS. When the Muslemans came from Mecca to Medinah with the Prophet, they wished to have times appointed for the prayers, in order that all might take care to be present. Some of them said it would be a good plan to light a fire on a high place and assemble on seeing it, or blow a trumpet, others said that lighting fires at the times for prayers was a Jewish custom, and blowing a trumpet the custom of the Christians. WHEN the Prophet ordered a trumpet to be made and blow to assemble people to prayer, ABDULLAH-BIN-ZAID says, I saw a person in my sleep who had a trumpet in his hand, and I said to him, "will you sell it?" He said, "what will you do with it?" I replied, "I will use it to call people to prayer" The person said, "shall I shew you a better way than this?" I said, "yes" He said, "repeat the Adhan twice over" And when I rose in the morning I informed the Prophet of what I had seen. Then the Prophet said, "truly thy dream is true, then stand up with BILL'AL, and tell him what you saw, and repeat the Adhan along with him, because Bill'al's voice is stronger than yours" Then I stood up with BILL'AL and told him what I had seen in my sleep. And OMER-IBN-AL-KHATTAB heard what passed, whilst he was in his own house and he came out quickly and said, "O Prophet of God! I swear by God I have had the same dream as Abdullah-Ibn-Zaid" He said, "praise be to God" AB'UBACRAH 'I came out with the Prophet to say the Namazi Faji, and he awoke every one he came near to prayer' Malic Muadhdhin went to OMER to call him up for Namàzi Fajr and found him sleeping, and he said, "prayers are better than sleep," and OMER ordered him to come every morning and repeat those words? AB'U-UMAMAH. 'A learned man of the Jews asked the Prophet, which was the best dwelling, at which he remained silent, and then said, "I am silent till Gabriel comes to me" After which he remained silent, and the Prophet asked Gabriel, who said, "he to whom this question is put knows no more than the questioner, but I will inquire of my blessed and exalted Lord" Then he added, "O Muh'ammed! I was nearer to my Lord than I ever had been before" The Prophet said, "how far off wast thou, O Gabriel?" He said, "there were seventy thousand curtains of light between him and me, and God said the worst of all places are bazars, and the best of all, Mayids"

ABUHURAIRAH said, 'The Prophet used to repeat slowly what he said between the Tachir and any Surah; and I said, "O Prophet of God (may my father and mother be sacrificed for you) what is it that you say between the Tachir and the Surah?" He said, "I repeat, O God' separate me far from my sins, like as you have made the cast distant from the west, and O Lord! purify me from my offences, as a cloth is cleaned from dirt, O Lord! wash away my sins with water, snow, and hail."

Ejaculations to be used after the Tachir

All IBN-ABUTALIB said, when the Prophet stood up to prayer he repeated the Tachir, and said, "I have turned my face towards him who created the heavens and the earths, as I am a Mómin, and am not of the polytheists; verily my prayers, adorations, hise and death, are for God, that God who is the cherisher of creations he has no partner, and I was ordered so to do, and I am of the number of the Muslemans, and the first of them O Lord! thou art king, and there is no other God but thee, thou art my creator and I am they servant; I

My existence is from thee, and my wish is to return to thee potence and exaltation exceed my understanding, I ask thee forgiveness and repent" And when he performed Rucuu he would say, "O' LORD! I have bent my back to please thee and to obey thee, and I believe in thee, My ears, my eyes, my brains, My bones and my veins, and worship thee humble themselves before thee" And when he raised up his head, he would say, "O' my God' all praise is for thee, to the full of the heavens and the earths" And when he prostrated himself, he would say, " O' LORD! I have prostrated myself to thee and to no other, and I believe in thee and worship thee My face is prostrated to its creator, and to him who gave it a form, and to him who gave hearing to my ears and sight to my eyes God is almighty, and the best of creators, O LORD! pardon the sins which I have committed, and those I may be guilty of, those I have secreted and those I have disclosed, and forgive me the faults which thou knowest For thou knowest them better than I do. Thou art the beginning and thou art the end, there is no other God but thee "

The extemporaneous ejaculation of a man in haste, Anas said, 'verily a man came into the ranks of people standing up for prayer, when he was out of breath from running, and said, "God is very great! Praise be to God, the greatest and purest praise! he is the source of every blessing." And when the Prophet finished his prayers, he said, "which of you repeated this?" They all remained silent, and he asked again, but they were silent. He asked a third time. "say, have

The Prophet said, "whatever thou likest but the more the better" I then said, "shalk I appropriate two thirds? He said, "as thou pleasest, the more the better for thee" Then I said, "I will give up my whole time in sending up blessings on thee" Then the Prophet said, "in these times thou wilt obtain all thy wishes, both worldly and in futurity, and all thy faults will be hidden, e..ternal and internal, first and last"

FAD'A'LAH-BIN-U'BAID* said, 'whilst the Prophet was sitting down, a man came in, and said his prayers, after which he said, "O Lord! have mercy upon me, and forgive me my sins" Then the Prophet said, "thou wast in haste, for thou didst prefer thy supplications, before pronouncing the praises of God and imploring his grace for me. When thou shalt have performed prayers, sit, and praise God in the manner he is worthy of, and send peace on me, then ask of God any thing that thou wantest.", FADA'LAH said, 'then another man said his prayers, and praised God, and implored peace on the Prophet. Then the Prophet said to him, "O thou that prayest, ask whatever thou wantest and it will be approved".

ON SUPPLICATIONS AFTER THE PROFESSION OF FAITH.

ÁYESHAH 'The Prophet would supplicate after the profession' of faith in these words "O Lord! I seek protection with thee, from the punishments of the grave; and from the strife of DALL'AI, who will come at the end of time, and pretend to be God and I seek for an asylum with thee, from the calamities of life and death O LORD! defend me from sins, and from those deeds which might cause me to fall into sins, and defend me from debt, which might be difficult for me to discharge" Then a person said to his highness, "it is very extraordinary that you should ask protection from debt" Then his majesty explained the mischief of debt, and said, "verily when a man is in debt, he talks about his situation, tells lies, makes promises, and acts contrary to them " AB'u-HURAIRAH said, 'the Prophet of Gop said, "when any one of you hath finished the last profession of faith, he must ask defence from four things, from the punishment of hell and the punishment of the grave, the afflictions of life and death, and the wickedness of Dajj'al" Abu BACR Said, * Tsand, "O Prophet! teach me a supplication to make after the last profession of faith." And the Prophet said, "say O Lord! verily I have

The Prophet instructs his disciples to go to the right in returing from prayers

AAMIR-BIN-SAD-BIN-ABÌ-WAKKAS* said, that SAD said, 'I saw the Prophet repeat the Salam to the right and to the left, so that I saw the whiteness of his cheeks' Samurah-Bin-Jundub said, 'when the Prophet finished prayers he would turn his face towards us' Anas said, 'the Prophet used, after prayers, to go away from the right.' ABDULLAH-BIN-MASU'UD said, 'let not the devil enter into your prayers,' and he explained it thus not to walk away from prayers except from BAR'A IBN AAZIB said, 'when we said our prayers behind the Prophet, we liked to stand on his right side, that he might turn to us at the time of the Salam (1 e turn his blessed face towards us to behold our condition, before he turned it to the left ) I heard the Prophet say after giving the Salam, "O Lord' defend me from thy punishments on that day when thou wilt raise up thy servants" Omm Salman said, when women repeated the Salam in the divine prayers, in the time of the Prophet, they used to rise up and go away before the men, and the Prophet remained sitting, as also the men and the Prophet would say, " O Lord! thou art secure from vices and defects, and from thee is the safety of thy servants" and when the Prophet stood up, the men did so likewise.

A't'a Khorasan's relates, from Mughairah, that the Prophet said, "an Imam must not pray in the same place that he shall have prayed before, till he move from that place to some other "the Anas said, "verily the Prophet excited men to say their prayers in multitudes, and prohibited them finishing their prayers and retiring before him."

t This order is generally understood not to be confined to the Imam, but to include the congregation also. The reason of the Imam's turning and shifting his place, after finishing those prayers which are positively ordered by God in the Koran (called I ar d) before beginning those which are merely recommended in the traditions of the Prophet (called Sunnat or Nafl), is that the hearers and spectators may the more readily distinguish the one of those prayers from the other, also to mark the superior rank and importance of those which are enjoined by the divine precept Abd-vl-Hak.

BOOK IV. said, "the Prophet used to say that in prayers after the profession of faith, the best of all words is the word of God, and the best dispositions those of Muhammed, the elect." An xeishan said, the Prophet gave one Salam fronting the Kiblah; then inclined a little to his right side. Samuran said, the ophet ordered us to return the Salam on the Imam, and to Salam to one another.

FORGETTING IN PRAYER.

ABUHURAIRAH said, "A G s "Verily when any one of you stands up to prayer, the devil comes to him and casts doubt and perplexity into him, so that he does not know how many Racâts he has said therefore when any one of you has doubt in his prayers, he must prostrate himself twice in his sitting time" A'T'AA-BIN-YES'AR* said, A G s "When any one of you doubts in his prayers, and does not know how many Racâts he has said, whether three or four, he must leave the Racât on which the doubt occurs, and build upon that which is certain, after which prostrate twice (which is called the prostration of forgetfulness) before giving the Salam and if the person who prays has performed five Racâts, he must go through two prostrations for forgetfulness"

Rules to be observed when a person through forgetfulness has performed less or more than the requisite number of Racats in prajer

ABDULLAH-BIN-MASU'UD said, 'verily the Prophet performed, in morning prayer, five Racâts, and it was said, "O Prophet, have the morning prayers encreased, which were four Racâts, and are now five?" He said, "why do you ask? Perhapa I have performed more than four Racâts." Their said, "you have performed five" Then he prostrated himself twice, and said, "I am no more than man, like you, I forget as well as you therefore when I do so, remind me, and when any one of you doubts m his prayers, he must act on the side in which his opinion prevails, and complete on it, and say the Salam, then prostrate twice for forgetfulness" IBN-Sarin relates from Ab'uhurairah, who said, 'the Prophet acted as Imam to us, either in morning or afternoon praver (which AB'UHURAIRAH mintioned, but I have forgotten' then the Prophet perfored two Racits, then gave the Salam, and then stood towards a piece of wood which was put in the May de, and then leant upon it, and appeared angry, and put his right hand upon his left, and put his fingers through each other, and put his right cheek upon the back part of his left hand, and the people hastened out at the doors of the Masjid' Then the companions said to one another, " have the prayers been curtailed?" And AB'UE OR and OMER were also present, but were afraid to ask the truth of the case. And there was a man amongst the companions whose arms were long, on which account he was called D'h'u'L-YEDAIN,* and he said, "O Prophet! have you forgot, or have the prayers been shortened?" He said, " I neither forgot nor have the prayers been curtailed." Then he said (to the companions) " is it as D'hu'l-Yedain has said?" They answered, "yes," Then the Prophet went in front and performed the two Racits which had been omitted; after which he gave the Salam and pronounce the Tacher, then supplicated as usual Then he raised up his head and repeated the Tacbir' Then several asked IBN-SARIN if the Prophet performed the prostration of forgetfulness before the Salam, or after it? He said, ' verily Imr'an-bin-Hus ain said, after it ' Abnollah bin Buh'ainah said, t Verily the Prophet said the noon-day prayers with the companions, and

IMRAN-BIN-HUŚAIN said, 'verily the Prophet said prayers with the companions, and forgot, and prostrated twice for it, after which he repeated the profession of faith, and then the Salam' Mughairah bin Shibah said, 'A G s' When the Imam shall have stood up in two Racâts and shall recollect that before his having stood erect, he had not sitten down, let him sit and repeat the creed, and if he shall have stood perfectly erect, he must not sit, but after prayers must perform two prostrations of forgetfulness"

IN EXPLANATION OF THE TIMES WHERE-IN PRAYERS ARE FORBIDDEN.

The Prophet said, "Ye must not say your prayers at the rising or the setting of the sun then when a limb of the sun appeareth, leave your prayers, until his whole orb is up; and when the sun beginneth to set, quit your prayers until the whole orb have disappeared, for verily the riseth between the two horns of the devil "* ÛKBAH BIN ÂAMIR said, there are three times in which the Prophet forbade us to say prayers, and also to bury our dead in those times. One of them is from the beginning of the sun's rising, till he be completely up, the second at midday, till he begin to decline, the third from the commencement of setting, till the sun be completely set' AB'U SÂ'ID AL KHUDHRI SAID, 'the Prophet of God said, "there are no prayers, after those of the morning, till the sun be high, and there are no prayers, after those of the aftermoon, until the sun be set"

Prayers not to be said at the time of the sun's rising or setting, nor exactly at noon,

* It is related that the devil takes his post in the air near the sun, and puts his head close to that luminary at the time of his rising and setting, so as to front those who worship the un at those times, and receive their prostrations. Therefore Muhammed forbade his disciples pray at those times, that their prayers might not be confounded with those of the Gabrs ho adored the sun. App-UL-Ham

"there is no man who keeps water near him for  $Wad \dot{u}$ , and washes out his mouth and nose, and blows his nose, but that the faults of the internal parts of his face, his mouth and nose, are done away, therefore, when you have washed your face, agreeably to the order of God, the faults of it fall down with the water from the sides of your beard, after which wash your hands up to the elbow bones, the faults of them will fall with the water from the ends of your fingers, after which draw your hand wet over your head, when the faults of it will fall with the water from the sides of your hair and when you wash your feet to your heels, the faults of them will fall with the water from the toes and if you then stand up and say your prayers, and glorify God, in the way which he is worthy of, and empty your heart of every thing but Gop, you will be cleansed from your sins, as on the day of your birth"

IN EXPLANATION OF NIGHT PRATERS

ÁYESHAH said, ' the Prophet used to perform eleven Racâts Sunnat, after evening prayer, till that of the morning, and after every two Racats, he would give Salam and he performed one Racat Witr, then prostrated himself, and remained in that posture as long as any one of you would be m repeating fifty verses of the Koran and when the crier gave the Adhan for morning prayer, and his highness perceived daybreak clearly, he would stand up and perform two Racats Sunnat, then fall down upon his right side, till the crier came to inform him of the people having assembled, when he would come out of his house' AA'YESHAH said, ' when the Prophet said two Racats Sunnat in the morning, he would (if I was awake) speak to me, and if not, go to sleep' AAYESHAH said, when the Prophet performed two Racats Sunnat of the morning, he would sleep upon his right side ' Al'YESHAH said, ' the Prophet would, in the course of the night, go through thirteen Racats Sunnat, one of which was a Racat Witr, and two morning Racats Sunnat' MASR'UK " I asked AAYESHAH about the Prophet's prayers at night, she

Another account of the same

IBN-ABB'AS said, 'I was one night near MAIMU NAH, and the Prophet there also, and he talked with her one hour, then went to sleep. and when a third part of the night remained, or a sixth, he awoke and sat up, and looked up to heaven, and repeated this revelation "verily in the creation of the heavens and the earths, and the vicissitude of day and night, are signs to those of understanding of the existence of God," after which he got up and went towards a bag of water, opened it, and poured some into a cup, and performed Wadù well, by putting water upon every part necessary, then stood and began prayers and I got up from sleep also, performed Wad'ù, and stood to prayers on his majesty's left when he took me by the ear and put me to his right then he performed thirteen Racats Sunnat, then slept upon his right side, till he snored, which he always did when asleep, then BILL'AL acquainted him of the arrival of prayer time, and he got up and performed them, but did not Wadu And this was a supplication of his between the Sunnat and divine prayers of the morning, " O Lord! create light in my heart, and in my eyes, and in my ears, in my right side and my left, light above me and under me; before me and behind me, and make for me a light in my tongue, in my veins, my flesh, my hair, my breath, my skin "

The forms of adoration used by the Prophet at night

BN-ÂBBÀS said, 'when the Prophet got up to prayer in the night, he repeated this supplication "O Lord' praise be to thee, thou art the fixer of the heavens and the earth, and every thing which is between them, the angels, Genu and man thou art the maker of light, of the heavens and earth, and every thing between them and thou art king of the heavens and earth, and of every thing therein; and thou art the truth, and thy promise of rewards and punishments to thy servants is right, and the sight of thee at the resurrection is true Thy word is true, heaven is true, and hell is true, all the Prophets are true, and Muh'ammed is true, and the resurrection is true. O Lord I worship thee, and believe in thee, and put my whole trust in thee, and my return is to thee, and I fight by thy strength with the enemies of religion pardon my faults which I have been guilty of, and which I may commit henceforward, and forgive the sins I have concealed and disclosed, and those which thou knowest better than I Thou art the beginning and thou art the end there is no God but thee."

AAYESHAH said, ' when his highness got up at night, he began with prayer, and then said, "O Gop! thou art the cherisher of GABRIEL. of Michael, and Israfi'l, \* the creator of the heavens and the earth. thou knowest the hidden and the revealed, and thou orderest, between thy servants, in that which they vary in worship verily thou directest those thou willest to the straight way" UBADAH-BIN-SA'MIT said. A G s 'Whoever awakes in the night, and says, "there is no God but one God, to whom there is no partner, for him is dominion and praise, and he is powerful over all things immaculate Goo! and all praise to Gop! there is no Gop but Gop, great Gop! there is no power or strength except in God " after which says, " O my defender, pardon my faults," his supplication will be approved. Then if he perform  $Wad \dot{u}$ , and say prayers, they will be accepted '

RABIA-BIN-CAB said, 'I slept one night near the Prophet's room, and heard him say, when he rose in the night, "pure is the Lord of the worlds" This he repeated a long time, then repeated, "pure is God, praise to him," a long time.

ABUHURAIRAH 'A C S "When any one of you goes to sleep, the devil ties three knots upon his neck, and says, upon every knot, the night is long, sleep 'therefore, if a servant awakes and remembers God, it opens one knot, and, if he performs Wadu, it opens another, and, if he says prayers, it opens the other, and he rises in the morning in gladness and purity otherwise, he rises in a lethargick state." Muchai-rah-Bin-Shîbah said, 'the Prophet stood up so long, in his night prayers, as to swell his feet, and it was said to him, "why do you perform all this devotion, now that all your sins are forgiven, first and last?" He said, "what shall not I be a grateful servant of God?" Masu'ud said, a person was mentioned to the Prophet that always slept till the morning, and never got up to prayer he said, "that is a man in whose car the devil has pissed" Ab'uhurairah said, a G S "The mercy of our God descends every night to the lowest region (1 e the one nearest

And who is it that calls on me for pardon, that I may grant it him?" Ja'bir said, 'I heard the Prophet of God say, "verily there is a time of the night, in which, if a Musleman supplicates a good from God, he gives it him, and this time comes in every night" Abdullah-bin-Ömer 'A G s "The best prayers for God, are those of DAVID the Prophet, and the best fast days DAVID used to sleep half the night, and would be awake are his also and in prayer a third part of the night, and would fast one day, and eat another" AA'YESHAH said, 'the Prophet used to sleep the first part of the night, and to be awake the latter part, after which, if he had occasion to go to his women, he would perform his wishes, then would sleep, and if he was Junub at the first warning for prayer, he would get up and bathe but if he was not Junub, he would get up, perform Wad'ù, and repeat two morning Racats Sunnat'

AB'UHURAIRAH said, 'A G S " May God have compassion on that servant who gets up in the night to prayer, and performs them, and awakes his wife, and she says her prayers also, and, if she delays rising, throws water in her face and may God have mercy on that woman who gets up for night prayers, performs them, and awakes her husband, who says prayers also; and, if he refuses getting up, throws water in his face "AB'U-UMA'MAH said, 'It was asked, "O Prophet of God! at what time are supplications approved?" #### ON MEDIOCRITY IN RELIGIOUS OBSERVANCES.

ANAS said, 'sometimes the Prophet did so fast in a month, that I supposed he did not mean to break it during the whole month, and sometimes would delay it so long, that I supposed he would not fast in the whole month, that is to say, he did not always fast, nor always the reverse; but, in every month, sometimes fasted, and at other times ate and any night that I wished to see him at prayers, I was sure to find him, and any night that I wished to find him asleep, he would be so that is to say, the both slept and prayed in the night, neither prayed nor slept all night AAYESHAH said, 'A G S "The best act in God's sight is that which is constantly attended to, although in a small degree " AA'YESHAH G s "Do what you are able to do, conveniently, because God will not be tired of rewarding, as long as you are not tired of acting " " A G s "You must continue at your Sunnat prayers as long as it is agreeable to you, and when you are tired, sit down " AAYESHAH 'A G. s "When any one of you gets sleepy, when saying his Sunnat prayers, let him go to sleep till the drowsiness leaves him and verily when any one of you performs prayers, and gets sleepy, he is not sensible of what he says:

Regular perseverance in such observance of religious duties as is proportioned to a man's strength & opportunity is better than excessive rigour at some times and entire disuse at others

A person omitting prayer at the regular time may supply the omission afterwards probably he would blunder, and in the place of asking pardon, abuse himself" Ab'uhurairah 'a g s "Verily the Muslemàn religion is easy; therefore hold it firm but that person will not do so who is not overcome by it, then, when you have understood its nature, then chuse the straight road, and desire to approach God, and be joyful, and ask God's assistance in your late and early walkings, and the latter part of the night" ÔMER-IBN-AL-KHA'T T'AB 'A G S "If a person sleeps, neglectful of his night supplications, and makes them between the morning and noon-day prayers, that will be equal to his having repeated them at night "ÎMR'AN-BIN-H us'AIN 'A G S "say your prayers standing, but if you are not able, do it sitting, and if not sitting, on your side "ÎMR'AN-BIN-H us'AIN said, 'I asked the Prophet if a man could say his Sunnat prayers sitting' He said, "if he says them standing, his rewards are greater, and the person who says them sitting, will get half the rewards annexed to the performance of them standing"

Part Second.

ABU-UMAMAH said, 'I heard the Prophet say," whoever inclines towards his bed when in a pure state, and remembers God until he falls asleep; and does not turn about in the night, except from one side to the other; and supplicates God for temporal and eternal good, it will be granted him." Abbullah-Ibn-Masu'ud. 'A & B My defender is pleased with two persons, one, a man who rises quickly from his soft bed, and the warm covering over him, from his beloved, and family, to prayers then God says to his angels, "look at my servant, who has got up from his bed, his beloved, and family, to prayers, wishing to obtain from me good things, and to avoid the fear of my punishments."

Perseverance in prayer and fighting to death against infidels are highly acceptable in the sight of God the second, him who fights with infidels in the road of God, and is defeated with his associates, and knows the fault of running away, and the rewards of returning to the charge, and returns and fights till his blood is spilt, then God says to his angels, "look at my servant, who returned to the charge on account of rewards and the fear of punishments, so that his blood was spilt"

What are you about?" I said, "I was told, O Prophet of Gon! that you mentioned the prayers of a man sitting were half of those of a man standing, and now you are saying yours sitting" He said, "yes, it is as mentioned, but I am not like you (i e what I have ordered is for others) my cherisher approves my prayers as well sitting as standing " SA'LIM-BIN-ABU'L-FAD* said, a man of the companions, who was of the tribe of Khuzaa, said, would to Goo I had said my prayers! then I should be at ease " And people found fault with him for this expression; and the man said, " why do you find fault with me? because I heard his highness say, O BILL'AL! comfort me with prayer, and call the Tachir; in order that we may pray and be at ease"

The Prophet's manner of performing the War pray-

AAYESHAH said, 'the Prophet used to perform thirteen Racâts Sunnat in the night, and of them five Witr Racâts successively, and did not sit in any one of them for the profession of faith, except in the last, 'Sad-ibn-Hush'am* said, 'I went to Aa'yeshah and said, "O mother of the faithful! inform me of the Prophet's disposition." She said, "do not you read the Korân?" I replied, "yes, I do" She said, "verily the Prophet's disposition is mentioned and explained in the glorious Korân." I said, "O mother of the faithful! inform me of the nature and number of the Prophet's night prayers" She said, I always kept a Miswac and water, ready for lam to perform Wad'ù every night; and Goo kept him awake as long as he wished; and he cleaned his teeth, performed Wad'ù, and then nine Racâts Sunnat prayers; and did not sit down diffing the whole time, except in the eighth Racât. Then he called on God, praising him, and repeated the creed, then got up, but gave no Salâm; then performed the ninth Racât; after which he sat down to repeat the creed, and called on God, and praised him, then gave the Salam, so that we heard him, and after the Salam repeated two Racats sitting." Then Aayeshah said to me, "O my son! they are all together eleven Racats and when the Prophet became aged and weak, he would perform Witr on seven Racats, and, after giving the Salam, would say two Racats sitting. And those, O my son! were altogether mine Racats. And when the Prophet did pray, he was fond of saying the same prayers frequently, and when he was overcome by sleep, or pain, preventing his getting up to prayers, he would perform twelve Racats in some part of the day but I do not recollect ever hearing the Prophet repeat the whole of the Koran in one night, or that he continued in prayer the whole night, or that he ever fasted a complete month, excepting Ram dan"

IBN OMER said, 'verily the Prophet said, "perform Witr in the latter part of the night" Abdullah-ibn-Omer said, 'A G s "Perform Witr before day-break" Jabir 'A G s "Any one that is not able to get up in the latter part of the night, must perform Witr in the beginning of the night, and any one who depends on rising in the latter part of the night, let him perform Witr at that time, because the angels of grace are present at this time; on which account Witr is then more excellent than at the beginning of the night" Aayeshah said, the Prophet has ordained Witr sometimes for the beginning of the night, sometimes at mid-night, and sometimes at the latter part, and has confined it to day-break" Abyuhurairah said, the Prophet advised me on three things, one of them, to fast three days of every month, another, to perform Witr before going to sleep."

Witr ought to be performed to-wards the end of the night, but it any person cannot depend on awaking at that time, he may perform at in the beginning,

but it must not be after day break

Part Second.

The religious observances prescribed by Muh'ammed admit of considerable latitude, & are not oppressive

WHUDAIF-IBN-AL-HARITH* said, 'I said to Aa'yeshah, " did you remark when the Prophet bathed for Janabet, whether was it in the beginning or in the latter part of the night?" She said, "sometimes in the first part of the night, at others the latter part" I said, "Allaho Acter praise be to God, who has ordained such latitude and freedom in the religion." Then I said, "when did the Prophet perform With, in the first or latter part of the night?" She said, "sometimes at one time, sometimes at the other" And I said, " Allaho Acber! praised be Gop, who has made religion so open and expanded." Then I said, "did the Prophet repeat the Koran at nights, loud or low?" She said. " sometimes loud, at other times in a low tone of voice" I said, " Allaho Acter ! praise be to God, who made the matter of religion so spacious and unconfined " ABDULLAH-BIN AB'UKAIST said, 'I asked AAYESHAH, how many Racats Witr the Prophet used to perform" She said, "he used to do it by four and three, viz he would perform four Racats, and then three Rardts Witr, total seven; and he would perform Witr by six and three, total nine; and again by eight and three, total eleven and again by ten and three, total thirteen and he never performed Witr under less than seven, which are four and three, and he never did more than thirteen, which are ten and three."

She said, he used to repeat, in the first Racat, "praise the name of thy LORD, the most high," and in the second, " say, O ye unbelievers," and in the third, " say God is one God," or the two chapters which direct taking refuge with God " HASAN-BIN-ALI-IBN-ABU TALIB** said, ' the Prophet taught me some sayings which I repeat in Kunùt-Witr ++ "O Gop! direct me amongst those to whom thou hast shewn the right road, and keep me in safety from the calamities of this world and the next, and love me amongst those thou hast befriended, and encrease thy favours on me, and preserve me from ills, for verily thou canst order at thy will, and canst not be ordered, verily, none are ruined that thou befriendest, nor are any made great with whom thou art at enmity O my defender! thou art great and sublime " UBA IBN-CAB said, 'when the Prophet gave the Salam in Witr, he would exclaim "Pure is the most holy king!" Ali-IBN-AB'UT A'LIB said, 'verily the Prophet would say, in his last Witr, before the Salam, "O LORD! verily I seek for refuge in thy pleasure, from thine anger, and in thy pardon from thy punishments, and from thy resentment: I cannot count up thy praises in such manner as thou hast praised thyself "!!

IN EXPLANATION OF KUNUT, OR FIXED MODES OF SUPPLICATION

ABÙHURAIRAH 'Verily, whenever the Prophet wished to supplicate, to either the detriment or advantage of any person, he would do it after Rucùú and he often prayed in this way "hear, O God' him who praiseth thee Lord' to thee all praise is due "he would then supplicate for the liberation of some of his companions that were in the infidels' prisons, and say, "O my Lord! free Walid-Bin-Walid,* and Salmah-Bin-Hush'am† and Âyy'ash-Bin-Abì-Rabìa". His brothers asked him why he had not declared his conversion while he was among the Muslemans, and before his ransom, that so they might have saved their money. IBN ABBAS said, 'the Prophet supplicated Kunùt every day during a whole month, at noon and afternoon, sun-set, evening and morning, when he said in the last Racât, "Hear, O God! him who praiseth thee" He then prayed against some of the tribes of Banì Sal.m, viz Ril, Dh'acwan and Us'aiyah, and all those standing behind the Prophet would say Amen' Anas said, 'verily the Prophet repeated Kunùt one month, and then left it off' Ab'u Ma'Lic-ul-Ashja'i 'I said to my father," O father! verily you have said prayers after the Prophet, Ab'uback, Ômer, Ôth-

SAID DURING THE NIGHTS

OF THAT MONTH.

ZAID-IBN-THÁBIT said, 'verily the Prophet made a room in the Masjid, with branches of the date tree, and said prayers in it several nights, until a great many people assembled and followed him in prayers. But one night they did not hear his highness' voice, and supposed that he had gone to sleep then some of them hemmed, that the Prophet might come out And he said, "ye always be ambitious to assemble at nights to prayers, so that I am afraid, that they will at last become divine prayers to you but if they were divine prayers, then you would not again assemble to them therefore, O men' say your prayers at home because the most excellent way of your saying Sunnat prayers is at home;

* The word signifies taking rest, and was given to these prayers because those who first pronounced them in congregation used to sit down and rest themselves after every second salutation probably indulged in this in consequence of their being enfeebled by fasting through the day

The Prophet encouraged night prayers in Ramd an, but did not enjoin them

whereas the divine are best in Masjids" AB'UHURAIRAH said, 'the Prophet used to encourage people to say night prayers in Ram'dan, without ordering them positively, or investigating strictly, and would say, "any one that stands up to prayer in the night, wishing rewards, all his previous offences, not of a heinous nature, will be pardoned." Then the Prophet died, leaving the Tarawih' of Ram'dan in this way and those who wished to ask rewards did it in their own way, and there was no assembling for it established. After which, this was the way in the time of AB'UBACR, and in the beginning of the reign of OMER' JABIR said, 'A. G. S. "When any of you say the divine prayers in the Masjid, you must say your supererogatory prayers at home, because, verily God sends good to your houses on account of your prayers"

ABUDHAR GHAFFARI said, 'we kept fast with the Prophet; but some nights in Ram'dan we did not say prayers, until seven nights of the month remained, during which time we prayed, assembled together, until a third part of the night had passed in elew prayed the first of the seven nights, but not the second, but did in the third, until midnight. And I said, "O Prophet of Goo! it would have been better had you continued repeating prayers more than half the night." He said, "verily when a man says prayers with an Imâm till finished, his account will be taken as having been up all night." And on the fourth night, the Prophet did not pray with us, till three nights remained on the fifth night he assembled his relations, and women and people, and said prayers with us, till we were afraid that the time for eating our early meal would never come: after which he did not pray with us the remainder of the night.'

AAYESHAH said, 'one night I did not find the Prophet in my bed,* when I discovered him in Bakiā † And he said, "were you afraid that God would do you an injustice, and would you suppose that I would give your turn to another?" She said, "verily, O Prophet! I certainly did imagine that you had gone to some other of your women" He said, "my reason for going out is this, verily God sends down his mercy to the lowest heaven in the fifteenth night of Shāban, and forgives sins numerous as the hairs of goats, therefore I was desirous to remain up all this night, to go to Bakiā, and ask pardon for man" Zaid-Ibn Tha'bit said, 'a g s "The prayers of a man in his own house are more excellent than in Masjid, except the divine prayers, which are more excellent in the Masjid"

ABÙHURAIRAH 'A G S "We are last in the world as to our creation, and first in futurity, in rank and honour, besides this, other Prophets received books before us, and we have received a book after them, therefore Friday was ordered as a divine day of worship, for the Christian and Jew, but they have acted contrary to it then the Jew fixed Saturday as his day of worship, saying, that this was the day on which God finished the world, and therefore it is proper for us to refrain from worldly works on this day, and worship him and the Christian has established the (first day) Sunday, for his worship, because God commenced creation on that day, therefore worshipping on that day is in testimony of gratitude to God and he hath fixed Friday for us, so that the Jew and Christian follow us, the Jew on the day immediately following, and the Christian at the interval of two days" Abunurairan 'A G s "The best day on which the sun appears is Friday, for in this day Adam was created, and in this day Adam was taken into paradise, and turned out from it also on this day, and the day of resurrection will not be on any day but Friday." And there is no one moving thing upon the earth, that does not anxiously expect, on Friday, from day-break till sun-rise, the fear of the resurrection, except the Genia and man, whom Gop hath made indifferent about it And there is a time. on Friday, in which, should a Musleman ask any thing lawful, God will grant it him " CAB said, " there is one day in every year, in which that time occurs" I told Cab it was not so, but on every Friday Then Cab repeated from the bible, and said, "yes, it is on every Friday," and added, " the Prophet of God spoke true" Ab'uhurairah said, ' I met Abdullah-bin-Sal'am, who was also of the learned amongst the

The Prophet considered the festival days proper for sending out armies, & for inculcating characteristics.

MERWAN, contrary to the practice of the Prophet, repeated the Khu'tbah before the prayers. His reason for so doing after coming out for the Khu thah after prayers, there was no Ikamat, no call, nor any thing else " AB'u-Said-AL-Khudhri'said, 'verily the Prophet would come out for the two festivals, and begin with prayers, and when finished, he would stand up, and turn his face to the people whilst they were sitting in their places of prayer, and if the Prophet had occasion to send an army to any place, he would mention it to the people, and send it, or if he had any other occasion besides this, he would give his orders and he used to say, "give alms, give alms, give alms" and those who gave most alms were the women Then he would return Then the prayers always preceded the Khu'tbah and during the time of the four Khalifahs, until MERW'AN-BIN-HACAM* became governor of Medinah' Ab'u-Said says, 'I came out hand in hand with Merw'AN, till we arrived at the lidgah, when behold! And Merw'an said, "O Ab'u-Said! dispute not about this matter, verily that which you know is left off viz I have abandoned it, seeing it advisable, which is this, if Leonmenced the prayers before the Khu'tbah, the people would not wait for it " I said, "it is not so, I swear by God, in whose power is my life, you cannot advance any thing better than what I know " This I said thrice; then I returned, and was not present at the meeting

There are three days in Dhu'l-Hajjah in which sacrifices may be performed

JUNDUB-BIN-ABDULLAH said, 'I was present with the Prophet, on the day of the festival of sacrifice, and he had not finished prayers and the Salàm, when he unexpectedly saw the flesh of victims, which certainly had been slain before finishing the prayers and he said, "whoever has slain them before saying prayers, must slay others in their stead" And, in another tradition, it is said, that Jundus says, 'the Prophet was saying prayers on the festival of sacrifice, then repeated the Khu'tbah, after which slew the victims, and said, "whoever hath slain previous to our having said prayers, must slay others in their room, but those who have not, before prayers, must slay in the name of God" NAFî-IBN-OMER said, 'there are two days for sacrifices, after the first' IBN OMER said, 'the Prophet dwelt ten years in Medinah, and sacrificed every year * ZAID-BIN-ARKUM said, 'the Prophet's companions said, "O messenger of God! what are these sacrifices, and whence is their origin?" He said, " these sacrifices are conformable to the laws of your father Abraham" They said, "O Prophet! what are our rewards therefrom" He said, "there is a reward annexed to every hair" The companions said, " and O Prophet! what are the rewards from the sacrifices of camels and sheep, that have wool?" He said, " there is a good also for every hair of their wool"

There must be some inaccuracy in the dates, for the only solar eclipse which occurred in that year was on the 3d of August (See Pingre's Table of Eclipses, in Playfair's Chronology, p 197)

The commentator on the Mishcut has himself observed one astronomical inconsistency; viz that a solar eclipse never occurs but in one of the three last days of the lunar month, i e at the conjunction of sun and moon, but he gets rid of it by saying that this was a preternatural darkness

† He is of the descendants of Abd-ul-shems-Abd-Men'af His patronymic appellation is Abu-Sa id-Ghanami His original name was Abd-ul-Cabah, and the Prophet gave him that of Abd-ul-Rah m'an. He embraced Islam on the day of the conquest of Mecca.

yet death has nothing formidable to a true believer

But it is truly dreads ful to an infidel "verily we dislike death, and consider it a misfortune" The Prophet said, the allusion is not as you have understood it, that to meet God is death, but that whoever is desirous of his satisfaction, will always love death, but when a Momin is near death, God gives him the joyful tidings that he is satisfied with him, and holds him in esteem, therefore, there is nothing more like by a Momin, that presents itself to him, than death; therefore, God is pleased to meet the Mómin, and the Mómin to meet with God But surely, when death is present with an infidel, God's pumshments and severities are announced to him, therefore nothing is so had to him as the thing before him (i e death) Then an infidel dislikes to meet God, and God dislikes to meet him"

TALHAH-IBN-AL-BAR'AA was sick: and the Prophet came to visit him, and said, "verily I do not suppose but that TALMAH certainly will die, therefore inform me, in order that I may be present to say prayers over him; and do ye hasten in preparing him and putting on his shroud; because it is not proper for a Musleman to be detained in the house of his family. ABDULLAH BIN-JÄFER 'A G s "Mention to those near death, there is no God but God, the clement and beneficent immaculate God! lord of the magnificent throne, and all praise to God, lord of the universe" The companions said, "O Prophet! how is this word, must we repeat it for the living?" He said, " it is better and most proper" AB'u-HURAIRAH 'A G s A person who dies has angels present with him, and when he who dies is a good person, they speak thus to his soul "come out, O pure soul, which wast in a pure body, come out praise-worthy with God and mankind; and be happy, with rest and pure sustenance in paradise, from thy cherisher, who is not angry" Then for such a soul it is always said, until it comes out from the body. After that, it is raised up to the first region of heaven; and the door of it opened for it, and the door-keepers say, "who is this?" And the angels conducting it say, "it is such an one, the son of such a one" viz. they mention his name, and describe him, in such manner as he is known. Then it is said, "thou art welcome, a pure soul, that was in a pure body; enter thou who art praiseworthy with Gop, and his creatures; and be happy with the rest and sustenance of thy cherisher, not in anger." Then such is always said for such a soul, and it is carried from one region to another, until it arrives at the ene in which Gon is But when it is a bad man, one of the angels present says, "come out, O impure soul! which wast in an impure body; and come out, O execrable! and be pleased with hot water and the yellow matter which drops from the Bodies of the people of hell, and with other punishments similar to the above mentioned." And this is always said to such a soul till it comes out i then it is carried upwards and when the door of the first region is opened for it, the door-keepers say, " who is this?" Then it is said, " it is such an one, the son of such a one," and they say, " thou art unwelcome, a vile soul, in a vile body, return exeorated, because the doors of the regions will not be opened for thee" Then he is thrown down upon the earth, and returns into his grave? AB'UHURAIRAH said, verily the Prophet said " witen the soul of a Musleman comes out, two angels come to it, who carry it upwards " 'HA M'AD; who relates the tradition from AB'unurairan, says that AB'unurairan RAH mettioned to the Prophet about the fragrance of a Musleman's soul, and mentioned musk, viz that a smell of musk issues from it Prophet said, "the people of the heavenly regions say it is a pure soul which is come from the earth, and they say to the soul, " the peace of Goo be on thee, and on the body which you inhabited and kept alive" Then it is carried to its creator; when God says, " carry it to the place which has been created for it until the day of resurrection " And verily, when the soul of an infidel comes out; (and AB'UHURAIRAH mentioned to the Prophet about the smell of that soul, and called it cursed) the people of the upper regions say, " a vile soul is come from the earth," and it is said, " carry it away till the resurrection." As unurainan said, then the Prophet put his garment to his nose?

AB'UHURAIRAH 'A. G s. " When a Momin is nearly dead, angels of mercy come, clothed in white silk garments; and say to the soul of the dying man, " come out satisfied with Gon, and with whom he is satisfied: come out to rest which is with Gop, and to the sustenance of God's n'ercy and compassion, and to the Lord, not being angry." Then the soul comes out, like the smell of the best musk; so that verily it is handed from one angel to another, till they bring it to the doors of the celestial regions Then the angels say, "what a wonderful pleasant smell this is, which is come to you from the earth" Then they bring it to the souls of the faithful, and they are very happy at its coming, more than ye are at the coming of one of your family from a long journey Then the souls of the faithful ask it, " what has such a one done, and such a one?" viz how are they? and they mention the names of their friends left in-the And some of them say, " let it alone, do not ask it, because it world was grieved in the world, and comes from thence aggrieved, ask it when It is at rest" Then the soul says, after getting ease, " verily such a one, about whom you ask, is dead, is he not come to you?" When it informs them that he is dead, and they do not see him amongst themselves, they say to one another, " surely he was carried to his mother, which is hell fire" And verily, when an infidel is near death, angels of punishment come to him, clothed in sack cloth, and say to his soul, " come out, thou discontented, and with whom God is displeased, come to God's punishments" Then it comes out with a disagreeable smell, worse than the worst stench of a dead body, until they bring it upon the earth, and they say," what an extraordinary bad smell this is;" till they bring it to the souls of the infidels ' BARA'A-IBN-Â'A'ZIB said, "I came out with the Prophet at the bier of a man of the assistants, and we arrived just at the grave, when they had not interred it, and the Prophet sat down, and we around him, with our heads down and silent; you might say that birds the right or left, it would make them fly away. And there mas a stick in the Prophet's hands, with which he dug, and drew a line, on the ground; as is the custom of the afflicted. Then he raised his head and said, twice or thrice, to his companions; " seek protection in God from the punishments of the grave " After that he said," werily when a Musleman servant separateth from the world, and bringethins soul to futurity, angels descend to him, from the celestial regions, whose faces are white; you might say their faces are the sun; and they have a shroud of the shrouds of paradise, and perfumes therefrom. So they sit from the deceased, as far as the eyes can see After which, the angel of death, who is IZRA'1L, comes to the deceased, and sits at his head, and says, "O pure-soul, come out to God's pardon, and pleasure" The Prophet of God said, then the soul comes out, assuing like water from a, bag and the angel of death takes it; and when he takes it, the angels do not allow it to remain in his hands the twinkling of an eye. That is, when the angel of death has taken the soul of a servant, he resigns it to his assistants, in whose hands is a shroud; and they put it into the shroud and the perfumes: when a fragrance issues from the soul, like the smell of the best musk that is to be found upon the face of the earth. The Prophet said, then the angels carry it upwards, and they do not pass by any concourse of angels who do not say, " what is this pure soul, and who is master of it" And they say, " such a one, the son of such a one," calling him by the best names by which he was known in the world: till they reach the lowest region of heaven with him And the angels ask the door to be opened for him, which is done. Then angels follow it through every region; the angels of one region to those of the next, and so on, till it reaches the seventh region. when Gop says, "write the name of my

The Prophet said, "then their soul are returned into their bodies; when two angels come to the dead man, and cause him to sit, and say to him, "who is thy patron?" He says, "my patron is "Goo" Then they say, " what is thy religion?" He says, "Islam." Then they say, "what is this man who is sent to you?" (i.e the Prophet). He says, " he is the Prophet of God, and sent by him," Then they say, " what is your proof of his mission?" He says, "I read the book of God, which is the Koran, and believed in it, and knew him a teller of truth." Then a voice calls out from the celestial regions, " that my servant spoke true; therefore throw for him, a bed from paradise, and dress him, ir clothes from paradise, and open a door for him towards paradise." The Prophet said, " then tranquillty and perfumes come for him from paradise; and his grave is enlarged for him as far as the eye can see with a beautiful face comes to him, elegantly dressed and perfumed; the the man says, " be joyful in that which hath made thee so, this is the day which was promised thee," . Then the dead says to him, " who art thou? for thy face is perfectly beautiful: it brings, with it good." Then the man says, "I am thy good actions, formed into this shape" Then the dead says, "O Lord order the resurrection, that I may return to my family and property.+" And the Prophet said, " verily when an infidel servant is about to part from the world, and bring his soul to futurity, black-faced angels come down to him, and with them sack-cloths. angel of death comes, in order to sit at his head, and says, " O impure soul! come out to the wrath and displeasure of God" The Prophet of Gop said, then, the soul is disturbed in the infidel's body, and wishes not to come out; sfrom the fear which it sees from resentment Then the angel of death draws it out, as a hot spit is drawn out of wet wool, part of which sticks to it at the time of pulling out. thus the soul of the infidel. when drawn out from the vems, with strength and violence, pulls out part of the veins with it. Then the angel of death takes the soul of the infidel, and having taken it, the angels do not allow it to remain with him the twinkling of an eye; but they take it in the sack-cloth, and a disagreeble smell resues from the soul, like that of the most fetid carcase that can be met with upon the face of the earth. Then the angels carry it upeverds, and do not pass by any assembly of angels who do not ask, "whose filthy soul is this?" They answer, " such a one, the son of such a one;" and they mention him by the worst names that he bore in the world; till they arrive with it at the lowest heaven, and call for the door to be opened; but it is not done. Then the Prophet repeated this revelation: " the doors of the celestial regions are not opened for infidels, and they do not enter into paradise, till a camel, with all that size and stature, passes through the eye of a needle" Then God says, write his history in Sillin, which is the lowest earth.* Then his soul is thrown down with violence' Afterwards the Prophet repeated this revelation. And a man with a hideous countenance comes to him, shockingly dressed, of a vile smell, and he says, " be joyful in that which casteth thee in sins, this is the day that was promised thee " Then the dead says, " who art thou? Thy face is hideous and brings wickedness" He says, "I am thy impure actions" Then the dead says, "O Lord! do not order the resurrection." And in another tradition, like the before mentioned, and in addition to it, is this "when the soul of a Mómin comes out, every angel between the celestial regions and the earth sends blessings on it, and every one in the regions, the doors of which are opened for it, and there is not any assembly of the people of any door, but supplicateth God, that the soul may be raised up from them And the soul of an infidel is pulled out with his veins, and every angel that is between the celestial regions and the earth curseth it, and so doth every angel in the regions. # IN EXPLANATION OF WASHING THE DEAD, AND WRAPPING IT IN THE SHROUD.

The Prophet gives directions about washing the body of his daughter. My ATIVAH said, 'the Prophet came to us, and we were washing his daughter, who had died and he said, "wash her thrice, or more than that, if you see it adviseable and proper, with pure water, and with water in which the leaves of the tree Sidr* shall have been boiled, and the last time put a little camphor into it and when you have finished, inform me" Omm-Ativah said, 'when we had finished the washings, we acquainted the Prophet, and he threw his trowsers to us, and said, "put this under her in the coffin" And in one tradition it is said, "wash her an odd number of times, thrice, five times or seven times, and in washing her limbs, begin on the right side, and the limbs of Wadu"

* See p 120, note According to Mr Brown, (Travels in Africa, p 270) the Rhammus Lotus of Linneus, or Zizyphus Lotus of Willdenow, is called Nabik in Arabic. He says, however, that there are two kinds, the larger of which is called Nabik-ul-Arab. This kind is probably the Sidr, and specifically different from the R Lotus Accordingly, Forskal, who examined the tree called Sidr in Egypt and in Arabia, makes it a distinct species, consisting of two varieties, under the names of R nabeca rectus and divaricatus (Flor Egypt Arab pp LXIII, CVI) Does he consider this the same with R Napeca of Linneus? The distinction made by Forskal does not seem to have been preserved by later botanists See Millar's Dict. by Martyn voc. Rhamnus, and Rennell's Geogr of Herodot. pp 627—630.

SAD-IBN-IBRAHIM relates from his father, that 'verily Abbul-Rahm'an-bin-Awf,* had victuals brought for him, while he was keeping fast, and he said, "Mus Ab-bin-Omair+ was killed in the battle of Ohud; and was my better, he was wrapped in a small shroud, if his head had been covered, his feet would have been bare, and if his feet covered, his head exposed." I imagine that Abbul-Rahm'an-bin-Awf said this also, "Hamzah-bin-Abbulmut'allab was killed, and my better; and he was put into such a shroud, in this way, and grass tied upon his feet And I have received of the world, that which I have received And I fear that the reward of my good actions has been already bestowed in this world, so that nothing will remain for me in that which is to come." He evinced great bravery at the battle of Ohud, where he received twenty wounds, in consequence of which he was lame for the remainder of his life. The Prophet prayed behind him in the expedition to Tabuc, and completed what he had left infinished. He was tall and thin, of a fair complexion, with a roman nose. He was born ten years after the war of the Elephant, and died A. The dead should be carried quickly to the place of interment

ABÙHURAIRAH 'A G S "Be quick in lifting up a bier, for if the deceased be a good man, it is good to take him up quickly, and carry him to his grave, to cause the good to arrive at happiness, and if the deceased be a bad man, it is a wickedness which ye put from your neck" AB'u-Said-Khudhrì ' a G s When a dead body is placed upon the bier, men take it upon their shoulders, and if he be a virtuous man he says, " carry me quickly," but, if he be otherwise, he says, " Alas! alas! where are you carrying me?" # IN EXPLANATION OF WEEPING OVER THE DEAD, WITHOUT WAILING

ANAS said, 'we came with the Prophet to AB'b Yusur, a black-smith and he was the husband of the nurse of Ibrahim, the son of the messenger of God And the Prophet took Ibrahim and kissed him, and smelt him Afterwards we came to him, when he was in his dying moments. Then the eyes of the Prophet were fixed, and flowing in tears, and Âbdul Rahm'an-bin-Âwf said to the Prophet, "do you weep and shed tears, O Prophet of God?" He said "O Ibn Âwf! these tears are compassion, and feeling due to the dead." After that, he shed tears again, and said, "verily my eyes shed tears and my heart is afflicted, and I say nothing but what is pleasing to my benefactor, for verily, O Ibrahim! I am melancholy at being separated from thee." Usa'mah-bin-Zaid says, 'the daughter of the Prophet* sent some person to him saying, "my son is in his last moments, come to me." Then the Prophet sent a person to her, with his Salàm, and to say, "verily the thing

Then Zainab sent again to the Prophet, swearing to him, that he must come And the Prophet rose up, and there was Sad-bin-Uba'dah with him, and Mu'ad'h-bin-Jabal, and Ubai-bin-Cab, and Zaid-ibn-Tha'bit, and other men of the companions. Then the child was brought to the Prophet, dying, his soul trembling and moving. And both the Prophet's eyes shed many tears, and Sad said, "O Prophet of God! what is this weeping and shedding of tears?" He said, "this is an impression of tenderness and compassion, which God has put into the hearts of his servants, then God does not compassionate and commisserate his servants, except those that are tender and feeling

IBN ÂBB'AS said, "God causes to laugh, and causes to cry, that is, the sorrow and pleasure of a servant is from him" ÂBDULLAH-IBN-MALAICAH says, 'IBN ÔMER said nothing in answer to this, but approved.'

When his highness said this, I desisted from crying, and did not cry afterwards ' Num'an-bin-Bashir said, ' Abdullah-bin-Rawah ah was senseless when he was ill, and neur dying, and his sister, whose name was Amrah, stood crying, and said, "O mountain! After that he said to the women, "keep yourselves, O women! from the noise of the devil, which is wailing " And then he said, " verily, whatever is from the eyes, which are tears, and whatever be from the heart, which is melancholy and sorrow, are from God's pleasure and compassion, and what is from the hands and tongue, is from the devil, and he is pleased with it, because man falls into fault from that "* BUKHARI relates, that 'when HASAN-BIN-IM'AM HASAN died, his wife pitched a tent over his grave one year, and during that time, which she sat upon his grave, she had fresh affliction every day from separation. At the expiration of one year, when her pain abated, she struck the tent. and heard a voice saying, "beware! have you found the thing which you lost?" And another voice answered, " but she is hopeless and has turned away" Îmr'an-Bin-Husain and AB u-Barzah said, 'we came out with the Prophet with a bier, and he saw a concourse of the deceased's friends, who had thrown away their upper garments and were going in their shirts + And the Prophet said, "do you act like the people of ignorance? Verily I had intended to pronounce a curse upon you, such as would have metamorphosed you" Then they took up their clothes, and did not revert again into the custom of ignorance' IBN-OMER said, 'the Prophet prohibited following a bier, with which a bewailer might be'

And the quickest in joining the Prophet was Zainab-bint-Jahash, and she loved charity and alms.'

Again he said, " verily I will give alms," which he brought out, and put into the hands of a rich man: and people talked of it in astonishment all night, saying, " alms have been given this night to the rich " the man then said, " O Lord! praise be to thee, for my charity; although it was to the rich." AB'UHURAIRAH relates, that the Prophet said, 'while a man was standing in a plain, he heard a voice say in a cloud, "give water to the garden of such a one " then the cloud went on one side, any poured its water on stony ground, and lo the torrent filled all the roads and the man followed the water, to see where it would go, that he might know who and where that such a one was Then behold, he saw a man standing in his garden, and turning the water into the different quarters of it, and he said to the master of the garden, "O servant of God! what is your name?" He said, " such a one," the name which the other had heard in the cloud, and said, " why do you ask my name?" He said, " I heard a voice in a cloud, of which this is the water, say, " give water to the garden of such a one, and it took your name; therefore I ask your name, that I may know you are the person then what business do you do in your garden, that you have got this eminence, that clouds are ordered to go and water your garden?" He said, " I do not wish myself to disclose the state of the case, but as you have asked, I will tell it to you, then verily I look to the thing which comes up in this garden, and which is obtamed from it, and I give a third of it in alms, and I and my family eat another third, and I lay out another third in the repairs and cultivation of the garden, that is, I make the produce of the garden into three parts, one I give to the poor, another for my own subsistence and family, the third I lay out on the garden "

AB UHURAIRAH said, 'I heard the Prophet say, verily, there were three people of the children of Israe one of them, a leper, the second, bald; the third, blind, and God wished to try whether they would be grateful or not, and he sent an angel, who said to the leper, "what do you wish"

He said, "camels" Then he was given a female camel, of ten months pregnancy, and the angel said, "GoD bless thee in this camel, in the attainment of produce" Then the angel came to the person who had no hair upon his head, and said, "what dost thou wish for most?" He said, "good hair, and that this thing should quit me, which is hateful to man" Then the angel touched him, and the disease was removed, and he was given good hair And the angel said, "what property dost thou prefer?" He said, "kine" Then he was given a cow with calf, and the angel said, "GoD bless thee in this cow, and multiply them" Then the angel came to the blind man, and said, "what dost thou wish for most? He said, "that God restore my sight, that I may see people" Then the angel touched him, and God caused his sight to return, and the angel said, "what property dost thou prefer?" He said, "I like goats best" Then he was given a goat with kid Then the camel and cow produced, the goat kidded, and the master of the camel had a plain full of them, and the master of the cow also, and the master of the goat a plain full of goats The Prophet said, verily the angel came to the leper, in the same form as the first time, and said, " I am a poor man, and really my daily necessaries have been expended in my journey, and I have no dependence on any to day but God or you, I beg of you, in the name of that God who gave you a good colour and skin and property, I ask you for a camel, by which I may reach my desires" And the leper said, " I have many duties, have a large family to whom something must be given, so that when buld your turn come?" #### IN EXPLANATION OF SUNNAT ALMS.

ABUHURAIRAH 'A G s "The person who gives in alms a thing equal in value to one dry date, which has been guined lawfully, (and God accepts nought but that which is pure) verily God accepts it with his right hand, after that, he increases the rewards of it for the master, like as one of you nourishes your own horse, so that the rewards of the alms become like a hill " AE'UHURAIRAH ' A G S " No alms diminish any property, I mean, although apparently alms are a cause of loss to property, yet in fact, it is a cause of perfection and completion, and God has not ordained abundance, for any servant, who forgives an injury or malevolent design, but it increases his greatness in the world and futurity and no one humbles himself for God, but God exalts his eminence" Ab'uhurairah 'A G s "The person who bestows one thing of two, in the road of God, shall be called from the doors of paradise, and there are a number of doors of paradise, equal to the number of good actions then the person who shall be of the people of prayers, shall be called into paradise from the door for the prayers, and the person who shall be of the combatants for the religion, shall be called into pa-

The Prophet said, "yes; and I am hopeful, O AB'UBACR! that you may be of those persons who will be called from all the doors " AB'UHU-RAIRAH said, ' the Prophet asked his companions, " who is it among you that rose fasting this day?' AB'UBACR said, " I got up fasting this day" The Prophet said, " then who is it of you that has followed a bier this day, and performed prayers over it?" AB'UBACR said, "I am he" The Prophet said, " then who is it amongst your that has fed a poor man to day?" AB UBACR said, "I am" The Prophet said, "then who is it amongst you that has asked after the sick this day?" AB UBACR said, "J am" Then the Prophet said, "these four things are not combined, in one day, in any man, but he enters into paradise "

The smallest gift is not to be despised. AB'UHURAIRAH 'A G S "O Musleman women! ye must not account contemptible the present of a woman, your neighbour, although it be the hoof of a goat "JABIR and HU'DHAIFAH said, 'the Prophet of God said, "every good act, in which is approaching to the court of God, is charity '† AB'UD HAR-GHAFFA'Rì 'A G S "Do not suppose any good act contemptible, although it be your brother's coming to you, with an open countenance, and good humour" AB'U Mu'sA-AL-ASHARì 'A.

s "It is indispensable for every Musleman to give alms" The companions said, " but if he has not any alms to give, then what is he to do?" He said, " if he has nothing, he must do a work with his hands, by which to obtain something, and benefit himself, and give alms with the remorder" They said, " if he is not able to do that work, to benefit himself, and give alms to others?" The Prophet said, "then assist the needful and oppressed " They said, " if he is not able to assist the oppressed?" He said, " then exhort people to do good" And if he does not?" He said, " then let him with-hold himself from doing harm to people, for verily that is as alms and charity for him " AB'UHURAIRAH 'A. G s "There is alms for a man's every joint, every day in which the sun rises, doing justice between two people is alms, and assisting a man upon his beast, and lifting him upon his beast, and his baggage, is alms; and pure words in which be rewards, and answering a questioner with mildness, is alms; and every step which is made towards prayers, is alms, and removing that which is an inconvenience to man, such as thorns and stones, is alms" AAYESHAH 'A G S " Every person of the children of Adam, has been created with three hundred and sixty joints, then the person who says the Tachi, and plaises God by Alh'amdo-Lillahi, and says La-allah-il-illáhi, and Subhan-allah! and asks from God forgiveness of his faults, and throws aside and removes a stone from man's road, or a thorn or a bone inconveniencing man, or orders a thing lawful, and prohibits what is unlawful, and says and does these things in time equal to the number of joints, will close that day, having cast himself far from hell fire " AB't HURATRAH ' A G S " A camel, having given young, and having milk, is good alms, in the way of lending, and so also is a goat giving much milk, they give milk in the pail morning and evening, that is, benefit both morning and evening "ANAS 'A. There is no Musleman who plants a tree, or sows a field; and man, birds or beasts eat from them, but it is alms for him." (And in one

It was said, "O Prophet! must victuals also not be given from the husband's house without his leave?" He said, "food is the best of our property, which is immediately the means of preserving life." Sad-IBN-AB'u-Wakk'as said, 'when his highness took confessions from women, a respectable woman stood up, of the tribe of Mu'dar, and she said, "O Prophet of God! verily we are relations to our fathers, sons and husbands, then what is lawful for us from their properties?" #### CHAP I --- PART I.

The excellence of the month Ram'dan ABUHURAIRAH 'A G S "When the month Ram'dan arrives, the doors of the regions are opened" And in one tradition it says, "the doors of paradise are opened, and the doors of hell are shut, and the devils are chained by the leg" And in one tradition, "the doors of God's mercy are opened" Sahal-BN-Sad. 'A G S "There are eight doors in paradise, one of which is called Raiyan, by which none enter but keepers of fast" Abuhurairah 'A G S "The person who fasts the month Ram'dan, on account of belief in God, and in obedience to his command, shall be pardoned all his past faults, and the person who observes the prayers particularly appointed for the nights of Ram'dan, shall be forgiven all his past faults, and the person who observes the night Kadr, from faith and hope of rewards, shall be pardoned his past faults" Abuhurairah. 'A. G. S. "Every good act of man, shall receive from ten rewards for it, to seven hundred God said, except for that fast which is unbounded, because fasting is for me, and I give its rewards, what I please, because he abandons the cravings of his appetites, for my satisfaction. And there are two pleasures for the keeper of fast, one, at the opening of the fast, and another, in meeting God in futurity and verily the smell of the mouth of a keeper of fast is more agreeable to God, than the smell of musk, and fasting is a shield against the devil's wickedness in the world, and from hell fire in futurity. Then when it may be a day of fast with any one of you, utter no bad expressions, nor raise your voice on account of enmity, and if any one abuses a keeper of fast, or fights with him, let the person say in his own heart that I am a man keeping fast, I must not give abuse or shew enmity"

HAFS'AH, after that, OTHMAN compiled them into one book 'ANAS-IBN-Ma'LIC relates, that HUDHAIFAH came to OIHM'AN, and he had fought with the people of Syria in the conquest of Armenia, and had fought in  $\hat{A}dhurbaijan$ , with the people of  $\hat{I}rak$ , and he was shocked at the different ways of people reading the Koran And Hud'HAIFAH said to OTHM'AN. " O OTHM'AN assist this sect, before they differ in the book of God, like as the Iews and Christians differ in their books" Then ÖTHM'AN sent a person to HAFS'AH, ordering her to send the leaves which she had. and saying, "I shall have a number of copies of them taken, and will then return them to you" And HATSAH sent the leaves to OTHM'AN. I hen Orhm'an ordered Zaid-Ibn-Thabir-Ansari, and Abdullah-pin-ZULAIR, and SAID-IBN-AI-ÂAS', and ABDULLAH-ILN-AL-HAPITH-BIN-HISH'AM, and these were all of the Koraish tribe, except ZAID-IBN-THA-BII, and OTHM'AN said to the three Koraishites, "when you and ZAID-IBN-THABIT differ about any part of the dialect of the Koran, then do ye write it in the Koraish dialect, because it came not down in the language of any tribe but theirs, (and by the petition of his highness it was permitted to every person to read it in his own dialect, but Orhman, fearful of the difference which might arise amongst people, ordered all other dialects to be expunged from the Koran except the Koraish ) Then they did as OTHM'AN had ordered, and when a number of copies had been taken, OTHM'AN returned the leaves to HATSAH And OTHM'AN sent a copy to every quarter of the countries of Islam, and ordered all other leaves of it to be burnt IBN-SHAH'AB said, 'then KHA'RIJAH, son of ZAID-IBN-THABIT, informed me, saying, 'I did not find one section of the chapter entitled the Confederates,\* when I was writing the Koran, which verily I heard from the Prophet, then I looked for it, and found it with Khuzaiman Ansa'rì, and entered it into the chapter Confederates'

IBN-ABB'As said, 'I said to Othm'An, "what possessed-you, that you had the chapter entitled the Spoils* written, and the chapter entitled the declaration of immunity,+ and joined them, and did not have the words, " in the name of the most merciful God," written between, and so classed these chapters of the spoils and the declaration of immunity with the seven long chapters?" He said, "a time used to come to the Prophet, when many chapters were sent down to him, and his highness was used, when any thing of a revelation came down to him, to call some persons who wrote the instructions, and he would say, " write these revelations in such and such a chapter, ' and the chapter of the spoils was one of the first chapters that descended at Medinah, and in it is mention of the battle of Bedi, s and the chapter entitled the declaration of immunity was one si the last of the Koran in coming down And the subject of the chapter of the spoils was like that of the declaration of immunity, and the Prophet died without having explained whether this chapter was a part of the other, or separate from it on this account I had them put near each other, and did not have the words, " in the name of the most merciful God," written, and put these two chapters among the seven long chapters"

ABUHURAIRAH and AB'U-SA'ID-KHUDHRÌ 'A,G S ",No body of people sit, when remembering God, but they are surrounded by angels, which cover them with God's favor, and peace descends upon them, and God remembers them, in that assembly which is near him" Ab'uhurairah said, 'the Prophet was coming from Macca to Medinah, and passed by a mountain called Jumdan* and he said, "go quick, this is Jumdan, and Medinah is near" And goers alone went on before, they asked, "who are the goers alone, O Prophet?" He said, "they are men who have remembered God very much, and women who have done the same" Ab'u-Musa-Ashari 'A G S "The condition of that person who remembers God, and of that who does not, are like the living, and the dead, the rememberer is as the living, and the other like they dead" Ab'uhurairah 'A G S God says, "I am near the hope off my servant who puts it in me, that is, I pardon his sins, when he asks for it, and approve of his repentance, when he repents and turns away from sins, and I accept, when he supplicates, and I am with him, and near him, when he remembers me, when he remembers me in private. I remember him in private, and give him his rewards, and, if he remembers me in a crowd, I remember him in one better than that 'Abudhar Ghaffari. 'A G s Almighty God says, " he who does one good act, for him are ten rewards, and I also give more to whomever I will, and he who does an ill, its retaliation is equal to it, oil forgive him, and he who seeks to approach me one span, I will seek to approach one cubit, and he who seeks to approach me one cubit, I will seek to approach him two fathoms, and he who walks towards me, I will run towards him, and he who comes before me with the earth full of sins, and does not associate any thing with me, I will come before him with a front of forgiveness like that " AB'u-HURAIRAH 'A G S God said, "Whoever considers as an enemy any one of my friends, verily I will denounce against him war and enmity, and whoever seeks to approach me by that which I have given as my divine commands, is most loved by me and my servant is always seeking to approach me by Sunnat, so that I love him therefore, when I hold him as a friend, I am his hearing by which he hears, and I am his sight by which he sees, and I am his hands by which he holds, and I am his feet by which he walks if this servant supplicates me, verily I give unto him, and, if he seeks protection with me from harm and ills, I give him protection, and I do not hesitate about any thing in which I am the doer, like my hesitation in taking the soul of a Momin, who dislikes death, and I dislike making him sad, but there is no remedy for him against death, that is, I (on account of the regard I have for my serviant) hesitate about causing him to die, because he is displeased at death; but there is no remedy for it, he certainly must die " AB'UHURAIRAH. A. G s. "Verily there are angels which move around houses for God, and seek for the rememberers of God, and when they find an assembly remembering God, they say to one another, "come ye, to that which ye were seeking" Then the angels cover the repeaters of God's name with wings, as far as the lowest region (called the region of the world ") The Prophet said, ' when the angels go to the court of God, God asks them, (while knowing better than they) " what do my servants say and do?" Then the angels say, " they remember thee with purity, greatness, praise, and respect ' And God says, " have they seen me?" The angels say, "no by God, they have not seen thee ' Then God says, " what would their condition be if they had seen me?" The angels say, " if they had seen thee, they would be more strenuous in worshipping thee, and in holding thee mighty and glorious, and they would be more excessive in repeating thy immaculate attributes" God says, " then what do they ask?" The angels say, "paradise" Then God says, " have they seen paradise?' The angels say, " we swear by God they thave not, that is, their belief in paradise is mysterious" Then God says, " what would their state have been had they seen paradise?" The angels say, " if they had seen paradise, they would be very ambitious for it and would be excessive wishers of it, and very great desirers of it" God says, "what thing is it they seek protection from?" The angels and their desay, "from hell fire" God says, "have they seen the fire?" angels say, " no, if they had seen the fire, they would be greater runners from it" God says, "how would they have been, had they seen the fire?" The angels say, " if they had seen the fire, they would be greater runners from it, and would be greater fearers of it" Then God says, "I take ye as evidences, that verily I have pardoned them" One of the angels says, "there is a person amongst them who is not a rememberer of thee, and is only come on account of his own needs "God says, " verily it is not unfortunate for him to sit in such an assembly as this, although he may have come on any other account" And in one tradition it is, that the Prophet said, 'verily there are angels which walk upon the earth for God, and seek for assemblies of repeaters of God's name; and when they meet with one in which God is remembered, they sit down with the rememberers, and hide one another with their wings, so that they fill the expanse between the earth and the lowest region Then when the repeaters separate, the angels ascend up to the regions, and God asks them (although he knows their condition) "whence are ye come?' They say, "from thy servants which are on the earth, they make mention of thy purity, and greatness, with reverence and praise; supplicate and beg of thee "GoD says, "what do they beg of me?" The angels say, "paradise" Goo says, "did they see paradise? They say, "no." Gop says, " what would their state have been had they seen paradise?' The angels say, "they would wish more for it" Gov says, "what do they seek protection from? The angels say, "from thy fire and punishments ' God says, " have they seen my fire ' I hey say, "no." Gon says, "what would their condition have been had they seen it?' The angels say, "they would fear more thee forgiveness" God says, "verily I have pardoned them, and have given them the things they supplicated for, that is, paradise. and I have given them protection from what they sought, that is, the fire " The angels say, "O our patron! there is a servant amongst them, an offender, and of bad actions, who did not pass by them, but sat down without remembering thee" God says, "I have pardoned him also, because this is an assembly, the companion of which shall not be unfortunate"

The frequenting of the assemblies of the pious is a means of forgiveness even to the wicked

ABDULLAH-IBN-OMER said, "we were with the Prophet, in some of his wars with the infidels, and he passed by a crowd, and said, "who are they?" They said, "we are Muslemans." And a woman was lighting a fire under her pot, and she had a son with her, and when the fire burnt up, and got hot, she put her son away from it, that he might not be hurt by it. Then the woman came to the Prophet, and asked, "are you the Prophet of God?" He said, "yes, I am." And the woman said ("may my father and mother be sacrificed for you!) is not!" Then the Prophet held down his head in tears, after that he raised it up towards the woman, and said, "verily Gop punishes those that refuse to confess his unity" THAWB'AN relates, from the Prophet, verily a servant wishes for the satisfaction of God, then, on that account, God always says to Gabriel, " verily such a servant of mine wishes to please me, know verily my compassion is upon him" And GABRIEL says, "God's compassion is upon such a servant," and the bearers of the imperial throne say, "God's compassion is upon him," and all the angels that are around it, until all the people of the seven regions repeat After that, compassion is brought down to the earth for him " the same Usa'Mah-bin-Zaid, relates from the Prophet, in the word of God, " after that I gave a book of laws, to those that were selected from my servants, then some of these servants injure their own souls, and some of them observe a medium in their actions, and some of them are swift in goodness" The Prophet said, "all of them are in paradise, agreeable to their difference in eminence and degree "

ON WHAT SHOULD BE SAID, IN THE MOR-NING, EVENING, AND TIME OF SLEEP

The Prophet's form of evening,

ABDULLAH-BIN-MASUUD said, 'the Prophet used, in the evening, to say, "we have reached the night, and so have all other inhabitants of God's empire praised be God, and there is no other God bu God, one, to whom there is no partner, for him is dominion and praise, and he is powerful over all things O Lord! I supplicate thee for the good of this night, and for every good that is in it, and I seek protection with thee, from the evils of this night, and from every evil that may be int, O Lord! verily, I seek protection with thee from sickness, from age and pride, and from the contentions and calamities of the world, and from the punishments of the grave" And when the Prophet reached the morning, he would repeat the same, but in place of "we have reached the night," he said, "we have reached the morning" Hudhaifah said, 'when the Prophet went to his bed-chamber, at night, he would put his right hand under his cheek, and then would say, "O Lord! if thy name do I sleep and wake" and when he awoke, he would sa

BAR'AA-IBN-AA ZIB said, 'the Prophet used, when he went to his bed, to sleep upon his right side, after that would say, "O Lord I resigned my soul to thee, and turned to thee, and resigned my work to thee, and relied on thee, and sought protection in thee, on account of shewing my wish towards thee, and of fearing thee there is no asylum or redemption from thy resentment but in thee I believed in thy book, which thou didst send down, and Prophets which thou didst send, I mean, I believe in all the books and all the Prophets" And the Prophet said, "whoever repeats these words, and dies in the night in which he has repeated them, dies on the way of religion" (And in one tradition it is thus, that the Prophet said to a man, "O man! when you wish to go to sleep, then do our Wa'du, the same as for prayers, after that, he down upon your ight side, and then repeat these words and if you die in this night, you die on the way of Islam, and if you rise in the morning, you will get much good") Anas said, 'verily the Prophet would say, when he came to his bed, "praise be to God, who has given us to cat, and to drink, and is sufficient for us, then there are a great many men who have no sponsors"

ABÙHUR AIRAH said, 'when the Prophet rose in the morning, he would say, "O Lord! in thy name I have reached the morning, and in thy name have reached the evening, and in thy name do I live, and in thy name will I die, and to thee is return." And when he reached the evening, he would say, "O Lord! in thy name have I reached the evening, and in thy name have I reached the morning, and to thee is the rising from the dead." And AB'AN was seized with a paralytic stroke, and a man looked at him and said, "you related that whoever repeated these words every day would meet with no misfortune, and you repeated them, notwithstanding which this paralytic misfortune befel you" Then ÁB'AN said to the man, "what do you say? take heed, verily the tradition is as I related it to you, but I have not repeated it today, so that God's predestination should pass upon me" And in one tradition it is thus, " whoever says this thrice every evening, no sudden calainity will befal, until he reaches the morning, and whoever says them in the morning, no sudden calamity will reach unto the evening" ABDULLAH-IBN-MASU'UD said, 'verily the Prophet used to say at night, " we and all Gods kingdom have reached the night, all praise is for God, there is no God besides God, he is one, there is no partner for him, for him is dominion and praise, and he is powerful over all things. MUHÁJIR of Mecca said, 'a man asked Ja'bir, "do you raise up both your hands when you see the Cabah?" He said, "verily I performed pilgrimage with the Prophet of God, and we did not use to do it" AB UHURAIRAH said, 'his highness turned himself to Mecca, and entered it, then went towards the black stone, and encompassed the Cabah, after that came to Safa, and went upon it, to look at the Cabah, then raised up both his hands, remembered God as much as he wished, and supplicated 'IBN-ABB'As said, 'verily the Prophet said, "encompassing the Cabah is like prayers in rewards; then the difference in it is this, that you speak to each other in encompassing the Cabah, which is not allowable during prayers then he who talks in encompassing the Câbah, must speak good words" IBN-ABB'AS 'A G S "The black stone is come down from paradise, and, at the time of its desient, it was whiter than milk and the sins of the children of ADAM have caused it to be black, by their touching it " IBN-ABBAS 'A G S " I swear by God, verily God will suspend the black stone, on the day of resurrection, when it will have two eyes, by which it will see, and know all those who touched it, and kissed it; and it will have a tongue by which it will speak, and it will give evidence for all those that touched and kissed it on Iman"

IBN-OMER said, 'I did not abandon kissing the black stone and the Yemani pillar, both in company and alone, from the time of my seeing the Prophet do it' Omm-Salmah said, 'I complained to the Prophet, that I had a sickness, and was not able to encompass the Câbah on foot: he said, "go in the rear of the people, mounted" Then I encompassed the Câbah, and the Prophet was saying prayers by the side of it, and repeated in his prayers the chapter commencing "by mount Sinai and the book which is written" Aa'bis-bin-Rablah said, 'I saw Omer-ibn-al-Kh'attab kiss the black stone, and say, "verily I know that thou art a stone, thou dost no good or harm in the world, and if it was not that I saw the Prophet kiss thee, I would not kiss thee "\sqrt{Ab'uhurairah said,' verily the Prophet said, God has appointed seventy angels over the Yemani pillar, then any one that says, "O Lord! give me good in the world and in futurity, and defend me from hell fire," the angels

ON STOPPING IN ARAFAH

MUHAMMED-BIN-ABÙ BACR THAKAFI* said, I asked AnasBIN-Malic (when we were both going, early in the morning, from Mina to Ârafah) "how were you, and what did you do in the day Ârafah† with the Prophet?" He said, "whoever liked it, repeated Talbiah, and was not forbidden; and those that liked it, would repeat the Tacbir, which was not prevented "Ârafah, God redeems his servants from hell fire, more than on other days; and verily his compassion is close to them on this day, after that, God honors his servants in the presence of his angels, and says to them, what do these servants of mine want? I mean, if they

AMER-BIN-ABDULLAH-BIN-SAFRAN* said, 'before the time of Islam, every Arabian tribe had its appointed place for standing in Arafah, where they would stand, and the place of YEZID-BIN-SHAIB'AN+ was in a place very far from that of the Prophet Then YEZID-BIN-Shaib'an, and the people of his tribe, wished to represent to his highness, and request to stand nearer his place. Then his highness sent a companion, whose name was IBN-MIRBA, to them, telling them to stay where they were, and not to remove from their ancient standing place, which was bequeathed to them by their father Abraham, the friend of God, and saying that all Arafat was allotted for the purpose of it, and there was no difference, in being near to, or distant from the station of the Imam' JABIR 'A G S "All Arafat is for standing in, and it is lawful to take any part of it for that purpose, and all Mina is for sacrificing; it is lawful to sacrifice in any part of it, and all Muzdalifah is for standing on, and all the Mecca roads are the same, that is, it is lawful to enter Mecca by any road " KHALID-BIN-HAWD HAH said, 'I saw the Prophet repeating the Khut bah to the people, standing up in the stirrups of his camel, in the day of Arafah, in Arafah, and this was that all might hear, both far and near' AMFR-IBN-SHUAIB relates, from his ancestors, that ' verily the Prophet said, "the best of supplications is on the day Arafah, whether made in Arafah or elsewhere, and the best supplication, and remembrance of God which I made, and the Prophets before me, in the day Arafah is this "there is no God but God alone, he hath no partner,

The Prophet marks the camels destined for sacrifice

BN ABBAS said, 'his highness performed noon-day prayer, when he came but for pilgrimage to Dhu l Hulaifah, after that called for his female camel, to send her to Mecca to be immolated, and he threw a lance into the right side of the hump upon her back, and wiped the blood from it, and hung two strings of camel's hair on her neck, that she might be known as a sacrifice, and not be stolen, and that the poor might take her and eat her, in case of her being near dying in the road ' AA YESHAH said, 'once his highness sent rams to be sacrificed at Meica, and tied strings upon their necks' Ja'bir said, 'his highness sacrificed a bullock, on the part of ÄA'YESHAH, on the day of sacrifice ' JA'BIR ' His highness sacrificed a bullock, on the part of his wives, in his pilgrimage' AAYESHAH said, 'I twisted with my own hands the strings of the Prophet's camels, and he hung them upon their necks, and struck them with lances on the right side of their humps, and sent them to Mecca along 'with Ab'u Back' Aa'yeshah said, 'I twisted the strings of his highness' camels with coloured wool, after that he sent them, along with

AB'U BACR, to Mecca' AB'UHURAIRAH said, 'verily the Prophet saw a man driving a camel, and said to him, " mount" The man said, " this is a camel for sacrifice, how can I ride him?" The Prophet said, " mount" The man said, " how? this camel is for sacrifice" Again the Prophet said, " mount alas upon thee! I order thee to mount, and thou makest excuses" AB'U ZUBAIR said, 'I heard JA'BIR-BIN-ABDUL-LAH say, (when he was asked about riding upon a camel sent to Mecca for sacrifice) " I heard the Prophet of God say, ride him moderately, and this also when compelled ' IBN ABB'As said, ' his highness sent sixteen camels, by a man, to Mecca, and ordered him to watch them, and take care of them and the man said, " O messenger of Gop! what shall I do with a camel that gets tired, from fatigue, or heaviness of load?" His highness said, " strike a lance into the right side of its hump, then colour with its blood the two strings which are round its neck: take them off, and place them along side of the camel, that passengers may know this is a sacrifice, that the poor may eat it, not the rich, for it is forbidden to them, and you must not eat of it as any one of your fellow travellers, whether poor or rich" JABIR said, 'we sacrificed with the Prophet (in the year of the battle of Hudaibiyah, when we had come for OMER, and the Koraish would not give us entrance into Mecca) a camel for seven people, and a bullock also for seven IBN OMER said. · verily I came near a man who had made his camel sit down, and was sacrificing it, and I said " make him stand up, and tie his left leg, as is the Sunnat of Muh'ammed, after that stab him" Ali-ibn-Ab'ut A-LIB said, ' the Prophet ordered me to be careful of the camels for sacrifice, and ordered me to give in alms their skins and saddles, and ordered me not give the slayer of the camel his wages from the flesh of it, and said, " I will pay him his wages myself" JABIR said, ' we did not use to eat of the flesh of our sacrifices more than three days, that is, in three

ON SHAVING THE HAIR OF THE HEAD

BN-OMER said, his highness shaved his head in the farewell pilgrimage, and a body of his companions did the same, in following the Prophet of God, and some of the companions cut their hair short' ABB'As told me that he cut his highness' hair with a pair of scissars' IBN-OMER The Prophet of God said, when coming out of Ihra'm in the farewell pilgrimage year, "O Lord ' compassionate the shavers of their heads" The companions said, "supplicate for the shorteners of their hair also, O messenger of Gop!" his highness again supplicated for them, again the companions desired a supplication for the cutters of their hair, and this time his highness said, "O Lord compassionate the shorteners" YAH'IYAH-BIN-HUS AIN+ relates, from his grandmother, whose name was OMM-AL-Hus Ain, that she heard his highness, in the farewell pilgrimage, supplicate for the shavers of their heads thrice, and for the shorteners of their hair once' Anas said, 'his highness came to Mina, then to Jamrah, and hrew pebbles into it, after that came to his place, in Mina, and stabbea his sacrifices, after that called a shaver, whose name was MUAM-

ON COMPLETING THE AFOREGOING

The Prophet allowed considerable latitude regarding the order of the pilgrimage ABDULLAH-BIN-AMER-BIN-AAS said, 'verily the Prophet halted, and stood in a place in Mina, in the farewell pilgrimage, to cheer men who were asking him questions, and a man came to him and said, "I was not aware, and shaved my head before slaying a sacrifice" Then his highness said, "stay, there is no fear" Then another man came to his highness, and said, "I was not aware, and sacrificed before throwing pebbles" His highness said, "throw pebbles, there is no fear" And his highness was not interrogated about any thing begun with or followed by, that he did not say, "do it, there is no fear" Ibn Abb'as said, 'his highness was asked, on the day of sacrifice in Mina, and he said, "there is no fear" Then a man asked his highness, and said, "I threw pebbles in the evening, now that its time is in the morning" He said, "there is no fear"

IN EXPLANATION OF MEDINAH HARAM.

ALI-IBN-ABÙTÁLIB, said, we did not write from his highness any thing but the Koran, and what is upon this leaf, and the Prophet of God said, Medinah is sacred from Âir to Thawr,* then any one who shall innovate therein, or protect an innovator, on him is the curse of God, of his angels and of all men, nor shall his divine or Sunnat prayers be accepted and whatever Musleman shall protect an infidel, and make a promise to him of safety, it is not right to break it then any one that breaks a promise with a Musleman, on him is the curse of God, of his angels and all men, and whoever has entered into terms of friendship with others, without asking the permission of his friends, on him is the curse of God, of his angels and all men, neither will his divine or Sunnat worshippings be accepted And in another tradition it is, whoever shall claim a paternal relationship with any but his own father, on him is the curse of God, of his angels and all men, nor will his divine or Sunnat adorations be approved Sadd-Bin-Ab'u-Wakk'as A G S Verily I have made
